Handbook of Response to Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention

A Culturally Proficient Response to the Common Core Delores B. Lindsey, Karen M. Kearney, Delia Estrada, Raymond D. Terrell, Randall B. Lindsey, 2014-12-04 Lead a Common Core implementation that closes achievement gaps This illuminating book shows how central Common Core tenets rigor meaningful curricula and assessment and higher order thinking can become educational realities for every child in your school or district This timely resource enables readers to Understand how underlying beliefs related to historically underserved students may create roadblocks to effective instruction Create a school culture where diversity is valued including developing relevant professional learning Compile and analyze meaningful data that enables faculty to better reach students from all backgrounds Advance the goal of college and career readiness for all learners
