Guide to the Study and Use of Reference Books, 1908 Heritage Knowledge in the Curriculum Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2018-04-27 Moving beyond the content integration approach of multicultural education this text powerfully advocates for the importance of curriculum built upon authentic knowledge construction informed by the Black intellectual tradition and an African episteme By retrieving examining and reconnecting the continuity of African Diasporan heritage with school knowledge this volume aims to repair the rupture that has silenced this cultural memory in standard historiography in general and in PK 12 curriculum content and pedagogy in particular This ethically informed curriculum approach not only allows students of African ancestry to understand where they fit in the world but also makes the accomplishments and teachings of our collective ancestors available for the benefit of all King and Swartz provide readers with a process for making overt and explicit the values actions thoughts and behaviors reflected in an African episteme that serves as the foundation for African Diasporan sociohistorical phenomenon events With such knowledge teachers can conceptualize curriculum and shape instruction that locates people in all cultures as subjects with agency whose actions embody their ongoing cultural legacy

The Routledge Companion to Dramaturgy Magda Romanska, 2014-08-07

Dramaturgy in its many forms is a fundamental and indispensable element of contemporary theatre. In its earliest definition the word itself means a comprehensive theory of play making. Although it initially grew out of theatre, contemporary dramaturgy has made enormous advances in recent years and it now permeates all kinds of narrative forms and structures from opera to performance art from dance and multimedia to filmmaking and robotics. In our global mediated context of multinational group collaborations that dissolve traditional divisions of roles as well as unbend previously intransigent rules of time and space the dramaturg is also the ultimate globalist intercultural mediator, information and research manager, media content analyst, interdisciplinary negotiator, social media strategist. This collection focuses on contemporary dramaturgical practice bringing together contributions not only from academics but also from prominent working dramaturgs. The inclusion of both means a strong level of engagement with current issues in dramaturgy from the impact of social media to the ongoing centrality of interdisciplinary and intermedial processes. The contributions survey the field through eight main lenses: world dramaturgy and global perspective; dramaturgy as function, verb and skill; dramaturgical leadership and season planning; production dramaturgy in translation, adaptation and new play development; interdisciplinary dramaturgy; play analysis in postdramatic and new media dramaturgy; social media and audience outreach. Magda Romanska is Visiting Associate Professor of Slavic Languages and Literatures at Harvard University, Associate Professor of Theatre and Dramaturgy at Emerson College and Dramaturg for Boston Lyric Opera. Her books include The Post Traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor (2012), Boguslaw Schaeffer: An Anthology (2012) and Comedy: An Anthology of Theory and Criticism (2014).
