

Some thoughts from judges

WA State Judges' Benchguide on Sexual Orientation and the law

"I have observed that many gay/lesbian couples are embarrassed about being in court on the Domestic Violence (DV) issues (which is not unique to the gay/lesbian community; most everyone is), but also embarrassed about the need to disclose their relationship, which is required in order to establish standing to obtain a DV order. Usually testimony to establish the relationship isn't required, but may be if the Respondent contests the relationship. These are public hearings, so there are usually people on the benches waiting their turn, and they of course listen to what is going on. Fortunately, the statute allows people living together to file, so the more intimate details don't need to be revealed in court, and I will interrupt and redirect if the testimony goes that direction when there is no need. The parties usually seem very relieved."
