beyond With original essays from both distinguished film scholars and accomplished screenwriters Screenwriting is sure to fascinate anyone with an interest in Hollywood from movie buffs to industry professionals

Objects of Our Desire Salman Akhtar, 2007-12-18 What makes something sexy Why are some things regarded as sacred and others profane Why do mourners face such difficulty in parting with their beloved's possessions Why do we often feel distraught when we lose something even when the object has little real value We spend our lives in a meaningful dialogue with things around us Sometimes the conversation is loud as in a collector's passion for coins or art More often the exchange is subtle and muted even imperceptible We are surrounded by things and they affect our emotions and impact our thoughts The arrival of a dozen flowers from a lover or a letter from a grandchild makes our day an old photo album or an afghan knitted by a favorite aunt offers comfort when we are troubled From exploring what makes something beautiful to why we place such value on antiques and artifacts from the past Objects of Our Desire offers insights both deep and delightful into the ways we invest things with meaning and the powerful roles they play in our lives Notice the inviting contours of that sofa the glint of a knife's edge the sparkle of a diamond ring Feel the softness of the pashmina around that woman's milky shoulders Look at the majesty of a large jet plane Take in the somberness of a gravestone Put on an old pair of shoes Clutch a warm mug of freshly brewed coffee Sit on a rocking chair Feel the sumptuous leather seats of a new car We are surrounded by things We are involved with them indebted to them We speak to things and things speak to us To say that we are interdependent is banal Let us be courageous Let us admit it we are lovers From Objects of Our Desire
