Objective Commerce (MCQs For Competitive Examinations) - Volume 2 - Finance & Banking Dheeraj Kumar Singh, 2
BPP Learning Media, 2012-12-01 A Core Study Text for the ATT Qualification , Constitutional Law and the EU
Balanced Budget Principle Simina Tănăsescu, Eric Oliva, 2021-11-29 Exploring the balanced budget rule as an economic standard and as a legal principle this book explains the context and content of the balanced budget rule and presents a critical appraisal of its impact on legal systems political institutions and social values and particularly an evaluation of its constitutionalization in the European and national legal systems Examining a range of perspectives on the balanced budget rule as a legal principle a series of chapters investigate the feasibility and effectiveness of the balanced budget rule The book considers the impact this may have on the separation of powers within the state on democratic decision making on the European social model and on the protection of fundamental social rights within the European Union It suggests that this impact goes beyond the ethical issue of the public debt considered as a burden placed on future generations and beyond injunctions imposed by international financial institutions on national public finances The transfiguration of fiscal discipline from an economic requirement into a legal rule demanding a balanced budget embodies a challenge to the political nature of the budgetary process while creating the flexibility needed in order to further fiscal federalism within the European Union This book argues that the balanced budget rule is nothing more than it has always been an instrument for devising public policies in a rational manner a tool for conceiving qualitative choices regarding the well being of citizens 2024-25

Reflexive Governance in EU Equality Law Emma Lantschner, 2021-10-21 The Covid 19 pandemic has revealed how far we as a European society still are from the proclaimed Union of Equality The book explores how the promise of equal treatment can become a reality and compliance with the EU acquis relating to equality and non discrimination can be improved It studies enforcement and promotion aspects of the two watershed directives of 2000 the Racial Equality Directive 2000 43 EC and the Employment Equality Directive 2000 78 EC through the lens of reflexive governance This governance approach is proposed as having great potential in enhancing the likelihood of sustainability or continuation of reforms in the current candidate countries and EU Member States through its emphasis on reflexive learning processes and the cooperation between EU institutions national authorities and civil society actors In order to deploy this potential there is however a need for more consistent and transparent monitoring both with regard to candidate countries as well as old and new Member States and a reconsideration of the understanding of monitoring as such It should be seen as helping to deconstruct own preference formations and as a possibility to learn from successes and failures in a cooperative and recursive process To work on these lacunae and improve learning and monitoring processes this book identifies indicators that are deduced from the comparative review of the implementation practice of the member states This book is thus a contribution to the existing literature in the fields of Europeanization governance and the right to equality and non discrimination Making Progress in Housing Sean McNelis, 2014-01-21 This book presents a new approach to housing research one that is relevant to all the social sciences Housing research is diverse and operates across many disciplines approaches and methods making collaboration difficult This book outlines a methodological framework that enables researchers from many different fields to collaborate in solving complex and seemingly intractable housing problems It shows how we can make progress in housing research and deliver better housing outcomes through an integrated approach Drawing on the work of renowned Canadian methodologist philosopher theologian and economist Bernard Lonergan 1904 1984 McNelis outlines a framework for collaborative research Functional Collaboration This new form of collaboration divides up the work of housing research into functional specialties These distinguish eight inter related questions that arise in the process of moving from the current housing situation through to providing practical advice to decision makers To answer each question a different method is required Making progress in housing is the result of finding new answers to this complete set of eight inter related questions This approach to collaboration opens up a new discourse on method in housing and social research as well as new debates on progress and the nature of science Handbook of Research on Pedagogical Innovations for Sustainable Development Thomas, Ken D., Muga, Helen E., 2014-03-31 Summary This book brings together case study examples in the fields of sustainability sustainable development and education for sustainable development The Oxford Handbook of the U.S. Constitution Mark V. Tushnet, Mark A. Graber, Sanford Levinson, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of the U S Constitution offers a comprehensive overview and introduction to the U S Constitution from the perspectives of history political science law rights and constitutional themes while focusing on its development structures rights and role in the U S political system and culture

This Handbook enables readers within and beyond the U S to develop a critical comprehension of the literature on the Constitution along with accessible and up to date analysis Whether a return to the pristine constitutional institutions of the founding or a translation of these constitutional norms in the present is possible remains the central challenge of U S constitutionalism today Principles of Performance and Reliability Modeling and Evaluation Lance Fiondella, Antonio Puliafito, 2016-04-06 This book presents the latest key research into the performance and reliability aspects of dependable fault tolerant systems and features commentary on the fields studied by Prof Kishor S Trivedi during his distinguished career Analyzing system evaluation as a fundamental tenet in the design of modern systems this book uses performance and dependability as common measures and covers novel ideas methods algorithms techniques and tools for the in depth study of the performance and reliability aspects of dependable fault tolerant systems It identifies the current challenges that designers and practitioners must face in order to ensure the reliability availability and performance of systems with special focus on their dynamic behaviors and dependencies and provides system researchers performance analysts and practitioners with the tools to address these challenges in their work With contributions from Prof Trivedi s former PhD students and collaborators many of whom are internationally recognized experts to honor him on the occasion of his 70th birthday this book serves as a valuable resource for all engineering disciplines including electrical computer civil mechanical and industrial engineering as well as production and manufacturing Challenging Territoriality in Human Rights Law Wouter Vandenhoe, 2015-06-19 Human rights have traditionally been framed in a vertical perspective with the duties of States confined to their own citizens or residents Interpretations of international human rights treaties tend either to ignore or downplay obligations beyond this territorial space This edited volume challenges the territorial bias of mainstream human rights law It argues that with increased globalisation and the impact of international corporations organisations and non State actors human rights law will become less relevant if it fails to adapt to changing realities in which States are no longer the only leading actor Bringing together leading scholars in the field the book explores potential applications of international human rights law in a multi duty bearer setting The first part of the book examines the current state of the human rights obligations of foreign States corporations and international financial institutions looking in particular at the ways in which they address questions of attribution and distribution of obligations and responsibility The second part is geared towards the identification of common principles that may underpin a human rights legal regime that incorporates obligations of foreign States as well as of non State actors As a marker of important progress in understanding what lies ahead for integrating foreign States and non State actors in the human rights dutybearer regime this book will be of great interest to scholars and practitioners of international human rights law public international law and international relations Commerce Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2023 24 NTA UGC NET JRF Commerce Solved Papers 2025-26 NTA UGC-NET/JRF Commerce Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2025 26 NTA UGC NET JRF Commerce Solved Papers 688 995 E This book contains the
