Honor Flight Austin
815-A Brazos St
USP Box 498
Austin, Texas 78701

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am writing to express my thanks for including me in the Honor Flight to Washington DC .I shall not forget the experience and shall cherish it for the remainder of my life. As a veteran coming home in 1946, almost a year after the war was over, I did not experience any fanfare or even a "thanks for your service", in fact no one met me at the train station. I tried phoning my parents to pick me up but no one answered so I put my sea bag over my shoulder and walked to my Grandfather's office, some 10 blocks from the station, there I was greeted by "where did you come from". So went my homecoming.

I am sure that many of the other veterans have similar stories and did not receive any real thanks for their military service. Perhaps the trip to DC will bring closure for them as it has done for me. Thank you for providing me this experience and please thank my Guardians that worked so hard to lug me around and see that I arrived in the proper place at the proper time.

Yours truly,
