Gibson, 2016-02-18 The Gessami Residence is a story of mature women still trying to live life to the max It's about enjoying life having fun with friends and finding love Jenny has endured three fairly miserable years following the sudden death of her husband Paul At forty-three with her sons at university the only thing keeping her sane are her three best friends Amanda Beth and Rose After deciding that what they really need is a girl's trip away they escape their uneventful lives on a holiday After all forty-somethings still like to drink flirt have meaningless sex and enjoy themselves right Rose organises the trip and keeps the details secret until they meet at the airport but she shocks them with her destination choice Ibiza Reluctantly they set off but on arrival it's immediately apparent they have every intention of enjoying themselves to the maximum After the first night of heavy drinking Jenny feeling the pace has to excuse herself and return to their hotel She is mortified when she falls ungracefully into the sand and is confronted with Ethan a handsome stranger who helps her back to her room As the holiday continues she keeps crossing paths with Ethan He invites them all to dinner for a trip on his yacht and to spend a week of their holiday at his new boutique hotel The Gessami Residence Ethan is not what Jenny was expecting from this holiday but the more time she spends with him and their friends the more she realises all she has missed since her husband died      Reimagining Your Love Story Dr. Andrea Gurney, 2019-03-26 Offers perspective and guidance on how to love without fear At the end of the day none of us have a fairy godmother or pixie dust at our disposal And so we must do the work ourselves Dr Andrea Gurney We've all grown up watching the fairy tales that promise happily ever after with our one true love Whether we like it or not whether we think we believe it or not chances are we've internalized that story of love And despite the technology to find connection with more people than ever before somehow we are also lonelier than ever before even when we re in relationships Although we were created for loving intimate relationships we ve lost our understanding of how to find and maintain them Andrea Gurney wants readers to discover more authentic connections that aren t made of wishes so she equips us with practices from psychology biblical truths and lessons from relationship science She also helps us examine our developmental history including how cultural and familial messages take root in our psyches Together these tools craft a solid foundation on which lasting love can be built rather than a pumpkin carriage that disappears when the clock strikes midnight If you are disillusioned by unattainable societal standards in need of healing from damaged relationships or simply want to improve at relating well with others you re ready for Reimagining Your Love Story

Black Mountain College Anne Chesky Smith, Heather South, 2014-10-20 Located in the mountains of North Carolina Black Mountain College was founded in 1933 by John Andrew Rice Theodore Dreier and other former faculty members from Rollins College Their mission was to provide a liberal arts education that developed the student as a whole Students and faculty lived and worked together on campus Grades were abolished and the arts were central to education The college rented space for their first campus at Blue Ridge Assembly In 1941 the college moved to the Lake Eden property they had purchased across the valley allowing the school to grow Many refugee artists found a home there which provided an open and safe environment to create Among the famous faculty and students of the college were Robert Rauschenberg John Cage Merce Cunningham and Buckminster Fuller Funding for the college was always scarce and in debt the college was finally forced to close its doors in 1957 Black Mountain College operated for only 24 years but left a lasting impact on the arts and education on an international scale
