Longing For Running Water:

Longing for Running Water Ivone Gebara, 1999-09-01 Gebara's succinct yet moving statement of her principles of ecofeminism shows how intertwined are the tarnished environment around her and the poverty that afflicts her neighbors. From her experiences with the Brazilian poor women's movement she develops a gritty urban ecofeminism and indeed articulates a whole worldview. She shows how the connections between Western thought, patriarchal Christianity and environmental destruction necessitate personal conversion to a new relationship with the earth and with the entire cosmos.

In the Long Run Jim Axelrod, 2011-05-10 It's 2008. Jim Axelrod, once among the most watched correspondents on network news and the first television reporter to broadcast from Saddam International Airport in 2003, is covering the final stages of the race for the Democratic presidential nomination. He's forty-five years old and thirty pounds overweight. He's drinking too much, sleeping too little, and scarcely seeing his family. He's just figured out that the industry that pulled him up the corporate ladder is imploding as he's reaching for its final rungs. Then, out of the blue, Jim discovers his late father's decades-old New York Marathon finish times. At forty-six, Bob Axelrod ran a 3:29:58. With everything else going on in his life, Jim sets himself a defining challenge: Can I beat him? So begins a deeply felt, often hilarious, quixotic effort to run the 2009 New York Marathon. Along the way, Jim confronts his listing marriage, a career upset by the seismic changes going on throughout the television news industry, excruciatingly painful shin splints, and the worst-timed kidney stone possible. Looming over it all is the shadow of a loving father who repeatedly lost his way in life but still has a lesson to impart. This is a book about a dead father's challenge to a son at a crossroads, but more than that, it is about the personal costs paid when ambition and talent are not enough to ensure success. Most fundamentally, though, it is a book about learning what it takes to be happy in your own skin.

Posol'stvo (U.S.), 1951 The New Monthly Magazine, 1878 In It for the Long Run Vanessa Stroud, Scott Ludwig, 2012-09-27 Multiple races of marathon distance or greater in a month or perhaps in a weekend. Several unsupported runs of 50 and 100 miles through the mountains and forests several times a year. Have you ever considered running through a desert across a frozen tundra or over multiple mountain ranges? Why not run for three days straight to see how many miles you can accrue? Welcome to a place where no locale is too inhospitable and no distance impossible. Welcome to the Darkside. The Darkside Running Club, established in 2002, is a place where runners meet to express their love for distance running and camaraderie by spending countless hours and miles committed to doing what they enjoy most. They share a singular focus towards achieving goals far off in the distance, both literally and figuratively. With their dedication and commitment, you may believe the Darksider to be a professional athlete or perhaps an Olympian. But you would be wrong; they are simply ordinary people doing extraordinary things in the sport they love: running. Highly competitive while never taking themselves too seriously, they strive to shave off minutes or perhaps hours while adding a mile or two or twenty while pushing their limits.

further and further The impossible becomes possible dreams become reality They won't take no for an answer as they persevere to move beyond physical and emotional discomfort to finish what they started Excuses don't exist Their passion is contagious So reader be warned they're in it for the long run In the Long Run We're All Dead Björn Frank,2023-08-12

A fascinating and entertaining account of the lives of the most important economists of the past Until the late nineteenth century economics couldn't be studied at the university level the field was the domain of well educated figures whose radical curiosity drew them to a discipline that was little understood and often ridiculed In the Long Run We're All Dead tells the story of one of those figures in each of its thirteen chapters Each of these extraordinary lives is worthy of fiction and the manner of their deaths oddly often illuminates their work Björn Frank shows us how these economists developed the theories for which they became famous and explains those ideas utilitarianism social costs the endowment effect and others with reference to the lives of their creators in an engaging irreverent even comic style Frank also takes daring leaps into speculation considering how the principles of these long gone economists might be applied to problems of today and of the future

Acidification is one of the most serious environmental problems especially in Sweden which suffers most from the consequences of acid rain. Besides international negotiations to reduce sulphur emissions, 85% of the acid load on Sweden can be traced to emissions from outside Sweden. The Swedish Government has employed large scale operative liming activities to counteract acidification of surface waters. The scientific results show that although acidification cannot be solved by liming, the measures taken resulted in substantially improved conditions in around 8 000 Swedish lakes and watercourses and other countries affected by acidification may also profit from the Swedish experience.
