Looking For Alaska Lesson Plans:

Looking for Alaska Peter Jenkins, 2014-03-18 More than twenty years ago a disillusioned college graduate named Peter Jenkins set out with his dog Cooper to look for himself and his nation His memoir of what he found A Walk Across America captured the hearts of millions of Americans Now Peter is a bit older married with a family and his journeys are different than they were Perhaps he is looking for adventure perhaps inspiration perhaps new communities perhaps unspoiled land Certainly he found all of this and more in Alaska America's last wilderness Looking for Alaska is Peter's account of eighteen months spent traveling over twenty thousand miles in tiny bush planes on snow machines and snowshoes in fishing boats and kayaks on the Alaska Marine Highway and the Haul Road searching for what defines Alaska Hearing the amazing stories of many real Alaskans from Barrow to Craig Seward to Deering and everywhere in between Peter gets to know this place in the way that only he can His resulting portrait is a rare and unforgettable depiction of a dangerous and beautiful land and all the people that call it home He also took his wife and eight year old daughter with him settling into a home base in Seward on the Kenai Peninsula coming and going from there and hosting the rest of their family for extended visits The way his family lived how they made Alaska their home and even participated in Peter's explorations is as much a part of this story as Peter's own travels All in all Jenkins delivers a warm funny awe inspiring and memorable diary of discovery both of this place that captures all of our imaginations and of himself all over again

Transfiguration Paul Weber,2001-11-13 This novel destined to be a libertarian classic on the level of Atlas Shrugged challenges you to reconsider what youve always known Evolution is an unchallengeable scientific fact isnt it Not in this noveland not in this world either If evolution is a scientific fact wouldnt we have lots of fossils of intermediate life forms by now Take the classic idiocy we were all taught that dolphins and whales are mammals that returned to the sea Really If mammals returned to the sea wouldnt you expect to find at least one fossil of a creature half way between a whale and a land mammal But try to picture what such a poor creature would look like and you realize such a thing couldnt be viable A horse with fins A dolphin with legs Whos kidding whom Species dont change form gradually over time as we were all taught but suddenlydramatically This might happen some day even to our own species What if women the world over started having babies who were different in appearance in abilitiesand in the way they think Would such a new species be mankind's salvationor mankind's destroyer This is the world of the near future a world in which a great Transfigurationa complete change in life formshas occurred But before I tell you any more about the setting of the novel consider where you learned about how the world works the public schools Did it ever strike you that when children loathe school when a five year old cries and screams at the prospect of leaving home and has to be literally dragged off to school like a lamb to the slaughterthat he may be trying to tell you something It may be that children understand the true nature of school much more profoundly than adults For public schools you see are not so much centers of learning as centers of indoctrination The lessons learned in public schools are obedience to authority and subservience to the group Children when they are young resist this with all the rebellion they can muster We as adults accept it But suppose our new humanoid speciescalled the Kethdont think the way most of us do Suppose they resisted all the attempts to indoctrinate them Oh they pretend to go along with submission to authority but at heart theyre rebels They develop their abilities they broaden their minds and they wait Like the Keth the Founding Fathers were rebels at heart Unfortunately their ingenious system for restraining tyrantsconstitutional lawhas been eroded over time Today were only a crisis away from having full tyranny restored Great thinkers like the founding fathers are rebels in the deepest sense They are the states worst nightmare That nightmare is one in which people understand things as they are stand up and say no The usual reaction to free people saying no is total subjugation as when the South tried to go its own way But usually the state tries to prevent such actions by using a thousand ingenious mind tricks Like Patriotism the unquestioning support for your rulers wishes Or Service to Country the willingness to march off to far corners of the globe to be blown to bits in service to democracy The Keth being gifted in understanding dont fall for such games Not even the most common trick believing you can be better off by accepting stolen loot from the government like a dog panting for a few more scraps from his master The Keth pretend to go along waiting for their chance Most people of course fall for these old games but if youve read this far youre probably one of the rare ones who dont The story of Transfiguration is the story of breaking free You will read how the Keth are rounded up and sent to specialized schools to make them more pliable and socialized You will read how they struggle to improve their minds despite the efforts of their teachers to hold them back
