Catalogue of the University of Texas University of Texas, 1927 University of Texas Bulletin , 1928 Texian Exodus Stephen L. Hardin, 2025-01-14 A narrative account of the evacuation of the Texians in 1836 which was redeemed by the defeat of the Mexican army and the creation of the Republic of Texas Two events in Texas history shine so brightly that they can be almost blinding the stand at the Alamo and the redemption at San Jacinto where General Sam Houston's volunteers won the decisive battle of the Texas Revolution But these milestones came amid a less obviously heroic episode now studiously forgotten the refugee crisis known as the Runaway Scrape Propulsive lyrical and richly illustrated Texian Exodus transports us to the frigid sodden spring of 1836 when thousands of Texians Anglo American settlers fled eastward for the United States in fear of Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna's advancing Mexican army Leading Texas historian Stephen L Hardin draws on the accounts of the Runaways themselves to relate a tale of high stakes and great sorrow While Houston tried to build a force that could defeat Santa Anna the evacuees suffered incalculable pain and suffering Yet dignity and community were not among the losses If many of the stories are indeed tragic the experience as a whole was no tragedy survivors regarded the Runaway Scrape as their finest hour an ordeal met with cooperation and courage For Hardin such qualities still define the Texas character That it was forged in retreat as well as in battle makes the Runaway Scrape essential Texas history The Military Surgeon , 1926 How to Write the History of the New World Jorge Cañizares-Esguerra, 2001 An Economist Book of the Year 2001 In the 18th century a debate ensued over the French naturalist Buffon's contention that the New World was in fact geologically new Historians naturalists and philosophers clashed over Buffon's view This book maintains that the dispute was also a debate over historical authority upon whose sources and facts should naturalists and historians reconstruct the history of the New World and its people In addressing this question the author offers a strikingly novel interpretation of the Enlightenment Merchant Vessels of the United States ... (including Yachts) , 1952

Merchant Vessels of the United States... United States. Coast Guard, 1976 Realizing the Witch Richard Baxstrom, Todd Meyers, 2015-11-02 Benjamin Christensen's H-xan The Witch 1922 stands as a singular film within the history of cinema Deftly weaving contemporary scientific analysis and powerfully staged historical scenes of satanic initiation confession under torture possession and persecution H-xan creatively blends spectacle and argument to provoke a humanist re-evaluation of witchcraft in European history as well as the contemporary treatment of female hysterics and the mentally ill In Realizing the Witch Baxstrom and Meyers show how H-xan opens a window onto wider debates in the 1920s regarding the relationship of film to scientific evidence the evolving study of religion from historical and anthropological perspectives and the complex relations between popular culture artistic expression and concepts in medicine and psychology H-xan is a film that travels along the winding path of art and science rather than between the narrow division of documentary and fiction Baxstrom and Meyers reveal how Christensen's attempt to tame the irrationality of the witch risked validating the very nonsense that such an effort sought to master and dispel. H. xan is a notorious genre bending excessive cinematic account of the witch in early modern Europe. Realizing the Witch not only illustrates the underrated importance of the film within the canons of classic cinema it lays bare the relation of the invisible to that which we cannot prove but nevertheless know to be there. Annual Report United States. Cabinet Committee on Opportunity for the Spanish Speaking, 1972 Federal Register , 2004 Commencement Programs University of California, Berkeley, 1962 The Image of Disability J.L. Schatz, Amber E. George, 2018-08-16 A mainstay of modern life the global media gives out information about disabilities that is often inaccurate or negative and perpetuates oppressive stigmas and discrimination. In response to representations that have been incomplete misguided or unimaginative this collection of new essays encourages scholars and allies to refashion media so as to disrupt the status quo and move toward more liberatory politics. Images in film television and social media are assessed through the lenses of disabilities studies media studies cultural studies and intersectional studies involving critical race theory and gender. United States Civil Aircraft Register , 1978 Opera and Sovereignty Martha Feldman, 2010-10-05 Performed throughout Europe during the 1700s Italian heroic opera or opera seria was the century's most significant musical art form profoundly engaging such figures as Handel Haydn and Mozart. Opera and Sovereignty is the first book to address this genre as cultural history arguing that eighteenth century opera seria must be understood in light of the period's social and political upheavals. Taking an anthropological approach to European music that's as bold as it is unusual Martha Feldman traces Italian opera's shift from a mythical assertion of sovereignty with its festive forms and rituals to a dramatic vehicle that increasingly questioned absolute ideals. She situates these transformations against the backdrop of eighteenth century Italian culture to show how opera seria both reflected and affected the struggles of rulers to maintain sovereignty in the face of a growing public sphere. In so doing Feldman explains why the form had such great international success and how audience experiences of the period differed from ours today. Ambitiously interdisciplinary Opera and Sovereignty will appeal not only to scholars of music and anthropology but also to those interested in theater dance and the history of the Enlightenment. National Faculty Directory , 2002 Marginal Spaces Michael Peter Smith, 2017-10-23 The literature on modernist and postmodernist urban development is abundant yet few researchers have taken up the challenge of studying the areas in which marginalized people live as sources of resistance to continued modernization. In Marginal Spaces Michael Smith has assembled case studies combining structural and historical analyses of the moves of powerful social interests to dominate social space and the tactics and strategies various marginalized social groups employ to reclaim dominated space for their own use. The marginal spaces embodied in the title of this fifth volume of the Comparative Urban and Community Research series include five sites of domination and resistance. A squatters movement in Ann Arbor Michigan resists the adverse consequences of four decades of urban development. A homeless encampment in Chicago engages in guerilla architecture and other moves designed to reconstitute prevailing social constructions of the problem of homelessness An antigentrification movement in the East Village of New York engages in an ongoing struggle to resist efforts by developers to market their neighborhood as space for luxury condominium development There is a Public Housing Council organized by African American women in New Orleans that is resisting both the material regulation of their daily lives and the dominant social construction of public housing as a racially gendered space suitable only for dependent women and children of color Finally there is a subordinate labor market niche in California agriculture where indigenous Mixtec peasants from Oaxaca are displacing the more traditional mestizo farm workers but who are also politically organizing as a transnational grassroots movement pursuing a binational strategy to alleviate their economic political and cultural marginality Contributions and contributors include House People Not Cars by Corey Dolgon Michael Kline and Laura Dresser Tranquillity City by Tahnadge Wright Private Redevelopment and the Changing Forms of Displacement in the East Village of New York by Christopher Mele Resisting Racially Gendered Space by Alma Young and Jyaphia Christos Rodgers and Mixtecs and Mestizos in California Agriculture by Carol Zabin This volume will be of interest to urban planners sociologists and political scientists especially those with strong interests in local ethnography and concrete policy

Care and Agency Jeanine Anderson, Jessaca B. Leinaweaver, 2024-10-11 Andean communities occupy a special place in the history of anthropology having given shape to fundamental theories of kinship peasant economics Indigenous medical systems ritual life and others Yet children have been shortchanged in research and theory building Care and Agency based on detailed ethnographies of six towns in the province of Yauyos restores children to a central research position Contemporary children's studies emphasize children's agency and autonomy and these take surprising forms under the conditions of the rural Andes At the same time the book incorporates and extends current discussions of caregiving and its organization in human societies Children in the Andes are involved in the care of each other of adults of animals of the environment The activities sociality and subjective states of children of different ages genders and social strata are variable in ways that make it impossible to speak of a single Andean childhood The future they face is also uncertain as the Peruvian nation stumbles through cycles of incompetent government whose common thread is the neglect of small scale family farming and the welfare of rural populations This book is a fascinating look at Andean childhood for anyone interested in the lives of children

Apache Adaptation to Hispanic Rule Matthew Babcock, 2016-09-26 As a definitive study of the poorly understood Apaches de paz this book explains how war weary mutually suspicious Apaches and Spaniards negotiated an ambivalent compromise after 1786 that produced over four decades of uneasy peace across the region In response to drought and military pressure thousands of Apaches settled near Spanish presidios in a system of reservation like establecimientos or settlements stretching from Laredo to Tucson Far more significant than previously assumed the establecimientos constituted the earliest and most extensive set of military run reservations in the Americas and served as an important precedent for Indian reservations in the United States As a case study of indigenous adaptation to imperial power on colonial frontiers and borderlands this book reveals the importance of Apache Hispanic diplomacy in reducing cross cultural violence and the limits of indigenous acculturation and assimilation into empires and states Latinos Marcelo M.
