A Century of South African Theatre Loren Kruger, 2019-11-28 Theatre is not part of our vocabulary Siphos Sepamla's provocation in 1981 the year of famous anti apartheid play Woza Albert prompts the response yes indeed it is A Century of South African Theatre demonstrates the impact of theatre and other performances pageants concerts sketches workshops and performance art over the last hundred years Its coverage includes African responses to pro British pageants celebrating white Union in 1910 such as the Emancipation Centenary of the abolition of British colonial slavery in 1934 organized by Griffiths Motsieloa and HIE Dhlomo through anti apartheid testimonial theatre by Athol Fugard Maishe Maponya Gcina Mhlophe and many others right up to the present dramatization of state capture inequality and state violence in today's unevenly democratic society where government has promised much but delivered little Building on Loren Kruger's personal observations of forty years as well as her published research A Century of South African Theatre provides theoretical coordinates from institution to public sphere to syncretism in performance in order to highlight South Africa's changing engagement with the world from the days of Empire through the apartheid era to the multi lateral and multi lingual networks of the 21st century The final chapters use the Constitution's injunction to improve wellbeing as a prompt to examine the dramaturgy of new problems especially AIDS and domestic violence as well as the better known performances in and around the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Kruger critically evaluates internationally known theatre makers including the signature collaborations between animator designer William Kentridge and Handspring Puppet Company and highlights the local and transnational impact of major post apartheid companies such as Magnet Theatre The polyfunctionality of 'still' expressions Bastian Persohn,2024-06-28 Expressions from the semasiological domain of phasal polarity still already etc tend to be highly polyfunctional with their various uses often extending into a wide range of other linguistic domains both time related and non temporal Yet these patterns have hitherto been investigated mostly for individual languages or smaller groups This volume presents the first ever larger scale survey of the numerous functions of expressions whose meanings include the notion of still making use of a global sample of 76 varieties from 45 distinct phyla It is aimed at semanticists typologists and descriptive grammarians alike The Training of African Teachers in Natal from 1846-1964 Nicolas Schicketanz,2024-06-07 The history of African teacher training in Natal is one of the most neglected and under researched aspects of educational history This book attempts to set out the administrative history of this field as a first step in stimulating the further research that is so urgently needed Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Justice for Marcus Garvey Julius Garvey,2024 Understand the groundswell movement for Marcus Garvey s posthumous pardon through this compelling and timely work Edited by Garvey s son Julius this collection of writings by thought leaders and activists preserves and honors the elder Garvey s legacy for a new generation of social activists The Bloomsbury Handbook of Postcolonial Print Cultures Toral Jatin Gajarawala,Neelam Srivastava,Rajeswari Sunder Rajan,Jack Webb,2023-08-10 The texts that make up postcolonial print cultures are often found outside the archival catalogue and in lesser examined repositories such as personal collections the streets or appendages to established collections This volume examines the published and unpublished writing magazines pamphlets paratexts advertisements cartoons radio and street art that serve as the intellectual forces behind opposition to colonial orders as meditations on the futures of embryonic nation states and as visions of new forms of equality The print cultures examined here are necessarily anti institutional they serve as a counterpoint to the colonial archive and relatedly to more traditional genres and text formats coming out of large scale publishers This means that much of the primary material analyzed in this book has not been scrutinized before Many of these print productions articulate collective liberation projects with origins in the grassroots They include debates around the shape of the postcolonial nation and the new state formation that necessarily draw on a diverse and contentious public sphere of opinion Their rhetoric ranges from the reformist to the revolutionary Reflecting the diversity indeed the disorderliness of postcolonial print cultures this book covers local national and transnational cultures from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Its wide ranging essays offer a nuanced and taken together a definitive though that is not to say comprehensive or systematic study of a global phenomenon postcolonial print cultures as a distinct literary field The chapters recover the efforts of writers readers and publishers to produce a postcolonialism from below and thereby offer a range of fresh perspectives on the meaning and history of postcolonialism The Education Gazette Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department,1947 Dear Comrade President André Odendaal,2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa s Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee s work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways

Theoretical and Practical Approaches to Social Innovation Weerakoon, Chamindika, McMurray, Adela, 2020-12-25 Social innovation is identified as a mechanism response to burning social challenges and the evolution of hybrid organizations such as social enterprises As a result there is an overwhelming growing interest among researchers policymakers and practitioners to know more about the significant concept of social innovation Despite this significance it is often argued that the meaning of social innovation is ambiguous and vague with theory lagging social innovation practice as the field is nascent emerging and remains underdeveloped This may impede the research endeavors of conceptualizing and establishing its socio economic underpinnings and the legitimization of the field Theoretical and Practical Approaches to Social Innovation illuminates and consolidates multiple views of social innovation theory research and practice which to date have not been presented in one publication The book provides an in depth theoretical and practical understanding coupled with an assessment of the current research in multidisciplinary perspectives complemented by case studies representing each knowledge cluster in social innovation research In this unique way this book links theory to practice demonstrating praxis While highlighting topics such as social enterprise urban studies management ecological resilience and social policy and networks this book is ideal for students academics practitioners researchers and entrepreneurs looking to expand their knowledge skills and passion and to sustainably pursue their social missions to bring about real social change that can transform communities and ignite innovative approaches to solving social challenges
