

Barcelona: a city of tourism? Does tourism threaten Barcelona's legacy?

Download

There are two contradictory perspectives on tourism: some scholars suggest that tourism poses a significant threat whilst others argue that tourism makes the city sustainable and vibrant. Some scholars suggest that tourism is a double-edged sword.

Others argue that tourism is a good thing, and it can be used to improve the city's infrastructure, create jobs, and improve the city's image.

However, some scholars argue that tourism is a threat to the city's heritage and culture, and it can lead to the loss of the city's identity.

Others argue that tourism is a threat to the city's environment, and it can lead to the loss of the city's natural resources.

Others argue that tourism is a threat to the city's social structure, and it can lead to the loss of the city's community.

Questions:

1. What is the city's legacy?
2. How does tourism threaten the city's legacy?
3. How can the city's legacy be protected?
