The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown, Herman J. van der Merwe, 2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies The Guardian, 1841 Shepherds and Butchers Chris Marnewick, 2011-05-13 Leon Labuschagne's livelihood depends on death At nineteen he is a warder on Death Row a shepherd who cares for the condemned and a butcher who escorts them to the gallows After a gruelling two week stint in which thirty two men were hanged Leon loses control with tragic results And now he's the one facing the death penalty Only the most precarious line of legal argument stands between Leon and the gallows Chasing a defence his advocate trawls the deepest recesses of life in the Pot the twilight world of Death Row A gripping courtroom drama steeped in the factual Shepherds Butchers begins in 1987 a year in which 164 people were executed Two years later the last man went to the gallows in Pretoria after more than four thousand hangings that century The novel portrays legal execution in unprecedented detail revealing its devastating impact on all those involved Choice Not Fate The Life and Times of Trevor Manuel Pippa Green, 2012-10-09 Trevor Manuel became South Africa's first black finance minister in 1996 a time when the economy threatened to spiral into a debt trap It took five years before Manuel could present his first good news Budget in Parliament He described that Budget as a tale of irrevocable and powerful transformation a tale of patience and obstinacy of determination and hope Of choice not fate He could have been telling the tale of his own life Born into a working class family on the Cape Flats his family's story embodied the fate that befell thousands of people classified coloured under apartheid Homes lived in and lost under the cruel Group Areas Act a mother who struggled to bring up her children on a garment worker's wages clashes with gangsters who roamed the streets of the Flats a truncated education Manuel stared down fate and internecine Western Cape politics to become one of the most prominent anti apartheid leaders in the internal resistance movement of the 1980s He confronted apartheid's police and prisons with a boldness that sometimes bordered on recklessness After Nelson Mandela was released from prison in 1990 Manuel rose quickly through the ranks of the African National Congress becoming a member of Mandela's first cabinet When Mandela appointed him minister of finance in 1996 business leaders sneered at his lack of qualifications and experience When he drove through a tough macroeconomic plan in a post apartheid South Africa some of his own constituency turned on him Obstinate and patient he saw out the worst until the economy began to turn Under his stewardship South Africa entered its longest growth period ever By 2007 he was the world's longest serving minister of finance and across the world the most respected African finance minister Mobile Learning in Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Region Angela Murphy, Helen Farley, Laurel Evelyn Dyson, Hazel Jones, 2017-07-06 If mobile technologies are to be effectively used in education how do we best implement sustainable mobile solutions for teaching and learning The aim of this handbook is to support educators and policy makers who are investing in innovations in digital education to develop effective and sustainable mobile learning solutions for higher education environments Authors from sixteen countries across the Asia Pacific region have collaborated to share their experiences with developing and implementing mobile learning initiatives These projects focus on a variety of aspects of mobile learning innovation from the trial adoption of existing social media platforms on mobile devices and the development of specialised applications or mobile learning systems to the large scale interuniversity implementation of technologies and pedagogies to support mobile learning Each chapter addresses challenges and solutions at one or more levels of mobile learning innovation within the education system encompassing the student perspective the educator perspective technical processes policies and organisational strategy and leadership The book also offers a unique perspective on the integration of mobile learning innovations within the educational political and cultural environments of Asia Pacific countries The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela Nelson Mandela, 2018-07-10 One of NPR's Great Reads of 2018 An unforgettable portrait of one of the most inspiring historical figures of the twentieth century published on the centenary of his birth Arrested in 1962 as South Africa's apartheid regime intensified its brutal campaign against political opponents forty four year old lawyer and African National Congress activist Nelson Mandela had no idea that he would spend the next twenty seven years in jail During his 10 052 days of incarceration the future leader of South Africa wrote a multitude of letters to unyielding prison authorities fellow activists government officials and most memorably to his courageous wife Winnie and his five children Now 255 of these letters many of which have never been published provide exceptional insight into how Mandela maintained his inner spirits while living in almost complete isolation and how he engaged with an outside world that became increasingly outraged by his plight Organized chronologically and divided by the four venues in which he was held as a sentenced prisoner The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela begins in Pretoria Local Prison where Mandela was held following his 1962 trial In 1964 Mandela was taken to Robben Island Prison where a stark existence was lightened only by visits and letters from family After eighteen years Mandela was transferred to Pollsmoor Prison a large complex outside of Cape Town with beds and better food but where he and four of his comrades were confined to a rooftop cell apart from the rest of the prison population Finally Mandela was taken to Victor Verster Prison in 1988 where he was held until his release on February 11 1990 With accompanying facsimiles of some of his actual letters this landmark volume reveals how Mandela a lawyer by training advocated for prisoners human rights It reveals him to be a loving father who wrote to his daughter I sometimes wish science could invent miracles and make my daughter get her missing birthday cards and have the pleasure of knowing that her Pa loves her aware that photos and letters he sent had simply disappeared More painful still are the letters written in 1969 when Mandela forbidden from attending the funerals of his mother and his son Thembi was reduced to consoling family members through correspondence Yet what emerges most powerfully is Mandela s unfaltering optimism Honour belongs to those who never forsake the truth even when things seem dark grim who try over and over again who are never discouraged by insults humiliation even defeat Whether providing unwavering support to his also imprisoned wife or outlining a human rights philosophy that resonates today The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela reveals the heroism of a man who refused to compromise his moral values in the face of extraordinary punishment Ultimately these letters position Mandela as one of the most inspiring figures of the twentieth century From The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela A new world will be won not by those who stand at a distance with their arms folded but by those who are in the arena whose garments are torn by storms whose bodies are maimed in the course of contest I am convinced that floods of personal disaster can never drown a determined revolutionary nor can the cumulus of misery that accompanies tragedy suffocate him My respect for human beings is based not on the colour of a man s skin nor authority he may wield but purely on merit A good pen can also remind us of the happiest moments in our lives bring noble ideas into our dens our blood our souls It can turn tragedy into hope victory

My Own Liberator Dikgang Moseneke, 2016-10-01 A powerful memoir of activism dedication and a life committed to justice and equality in apartheid era South Africa My Own Liberator spans some eight decades and sheds light on a remarkable and distinguished life as well as on of the history of South Africa and leading figures in changing times to paint a compelling double portrait of the author s personal life and the history of South Africa s journey from apartheid to democracy SALA citation The first of a two part memoir the former deputy chief justice writes movingly of the many people who influenced him on the road to becoming one of the most respected legal minds in South Africa Tymon Smith The Times Justice Dikgang Moseneke s biography My Own Liberator is a welcome instalment in the increasing body of African literature and biographies Through this book he has allowed us a sneak preview of his still incomplete life and this book is recommended for its wit depth and lucidity Thami Ka Plaatjie Sunday Independent Dispatches a beautiful memoir that is simultaneously poignant and enthralling My Own Liberator charts a life from Pretoria s version of Sophiatown Lady Selborne to Atteridgeville Robben Island as South Africa s youngest political prisoner lawyer silk and finally after becoming acclaimed one of our most revered jurists ever Kevin Ritchie Weekend Argus In My Own Liberator Dikgang Moseneke pays homage to the many people and places that have helped to define and shape him Tracing his ancestry the influence on both his maternal and paternal sides is evident in the values they imbued in their children the importance of family the value of hard work and education an uncompromising moral code compassion for those less fortunate and unflinching refusal to accept an unjust political regime or acknowledge its oppressive laws As a young activist in the Pan Africanist Congress at the tender age of fifteen Moseneker was arrested, detained and in 1963 sentenced to ten years on Robben Island for participating in anti-apartheid activities. Physical incarceration, harsh conditions and inhumane treatment could not imprison the political prisoners' minds; however, and for many, the Island became a school not only in politics but an opportunity for dedicated study, formal and informal. It set the young Moseneker on a path towards a law degree that would provide the bedrock for a long and fruitful legal career and see him serve his country in the highest court. My Own Liberator charts Moseneker's rise as one of the country's top legal minds who not only helped to draft the interim constitution but for fifteen years acted as a guardian of that constitution for all South Africans, helping to make it a living document for the country and its people. Winner of the Creative Non-Fiction Award at the 2017 South African Literary Awards, SALA shortlisted for the 2017 Sunday Times Alan Paton Award and shortlisted for the 2018 Humanities and Social Sciences Award for Best Non-Fiction Monograph, this memoir is a testament to the power of perseverance, principle and the pursuit of justice. Father in Law Terry

Hayward, 2011-11-01 When a violently gruesome murder takes place in an overpopulated prison, the police charge the wrong man. A mob connection comes to light as the trial begins with trumped-up evidence and an unexpected kidnapping. Though the defendant is acquitted, an attempted murder and another kidnapping occur. As the action moves to a game reserve where a crocodile-infested river becomes a player, this high-stakes crime drama concludes with a riveting and unforgettable finale.

Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist N. Chabani Manganyi, 2016-05-01 This intriguing memoir details in a quiet and restrained manner what it meant to be a committed black intellectual activist during the apartheid years and beyond. Few autobiographies exploring the life of the mind and the history of ideas have come out of South Africa, and N. Chabani Manganyi's reflections on a life engaged with ideas, the psychological and philosophical workings of the mind and the act of writing are a refreshing addition to the genre of life writing. Starting with his rural upbringing in Mavambe, Limpopo, in the 1940s, Manganyi's life story unfolds at a gentle pace, tracing the twists and turns of his journey from humble beginnings to Yale University in the USA. The author details his work as a clinical practitioner and researcher, as a biographer, as an expert witness in defence of opponents of the apartheid regime, and finally as a leading educationist in Mandela's Cabinet and in the South African academy. Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist is a book about relationships and the fruits of intellectual and creative labour. Manganyi describes how he used his skills as a clinical psychologist to explore lives, both those of the subjects of his biographies and those of the accused for whom he testified in mitigation; his aim always to find a higher purpose and a higher self. Witchcraft and a Life in the New South Africa Isak Arnold Niehaus, 2013

This biography casts new light on scholarly understandings of the connections between politics, witchcraft and AIDS in South Africa. Pace, 2000 Faces and Phases of Resilience Tinyiko Maluleke, 2025-03-31 In this captivating collection of essays, Tinyiko Maluleke invites his readers on a journey that begins with his eventful boyhood in Soweto and his life-changing upbringing in Limpopo. His heartfelt reflections on the roles of his mother, maternal grandmother and aunts in his childhood will resonate deeply with readers In the truest sense this is a feminist book one that powerfully highlights and celebrates the vital contributions of women to national development This memoir traces Maluleke s journey through academia his rise through the ranks and the invaluable lessons he learned along the way Woven into his personal narrative is a broader reflection on the South African experience inviting readers to reconsider the history of the country its villages townships and even their own identities Maluleke delivers unflinching analysis of critical issues facing South Africa blending rigorous scholarship with a masterful command of diverse literary genres and writing styles More than just a memoir this book is both a tribute and a testament to the moments places and people both celebrated and unsung that have shaped his perspective His incisive profiles of fellow university leaders are particularly compelling Faces and Phases of Resilience will make you think laugh yell and cry More than just a personal memoir it is the memoir of a country a historical epoch and a people an invitation into the tragedy beauty and hope that define South Africa Forty nine chapters later the book closes with a haunting essay on the scourge of xenophobia culminating in a chillingly titled reflection The Day I Die an ironic foretelling of Maluleke s own death that lingers long after the final page A literary treasure trove for seekers of exemplars and of fountains of inspiration It is an ode to resilience DR REUEL J KHOZA What a feast DR JUDY DLAMINI Chancellor of Wits University Maluleke has the power and ability to engage a reader s senses Highly readable FRED KHUMALO Journalist and Author
