Encompassing a century of recorded music, this pathbreaking book reveals the poetic artistry of popular songs. Pop songs are music first. They also comprise the most widely disseminated poetic expression of our time. Adam Bradley traces the song lyric across musical genres from early twentieth-century Delta blues to mid-century rock n' roll to today's hits. George and Ira Gershwin's Fascinating Rhythm, The Rolling

Stones I Can't Get No Satisfaction Rihanna's Diamonds These songs are united in their exacting attention to the craft of language and sound Bradley shows that pop music is a poetry that must be heard more than read uncovering the rhythms rhymes and metaphors expressed in the singing voice At once a work of musical interpretation cultural analysis literary criticism and personal storytelling this book illustrates how words and music come together to produce compelling poetry often where we least expect it
