

A hand settled over my shoulder and clamped down, followed by the rest of Aiden as he sat on the step next to me. He stretched his arms out, settling them on his knees.

"It's pretty here, nothing like home, that's for damn sure." He bumped his shoulder into mine and sighed deeply. When I remained silent, he changed tactics. "Did you get to talk to Ace before he left?"

Aiden didn't seem as guarded as Ace had been. I could only hope he'd slip up and tell me something useful, something to connect all the half-spoken sentences together to complete a full picture of what they'd been up to. "He said he was leaving. Where's he going?"

"I don't know," he said with a shake of his head.

"Figures. Never mind, Aiden, forget I asked," I said, pushing myself up to stand.

Aiden jerked me back down beside him. My ass hit the wood with a solid thud. "Hold on. I didn't say that because I'm keeping something from you, Jared. Believe me when I tell you that I've been fighting a losing battle with Oliver about you knowing the truth."

"And what is the truth, Aiden?" I asked, yanking my arm from his hold.

He blew out a deep breath. "There are certain things I can't tell you. I need you to understand that before I tell you anything. Do you think you can accept that and not push for answers I can't give you?"

It was better than nothing, but still. "You know me better than that."

He chuckled. "Yeah, that's what I'm worried about."
