Robert G. Jones

Engel Blackwell And Miniard 10th Edition:

Consumer Behavior Roger D. Blackwell, Paul W. Miniard, James F. Engel, 2006 CONSUMER BEHAVIOR 10th Edition offers a practical business approach designed to help students apply consumer behavior principles to their studies in business and marketing to their future business careers and also to their private lives as consumers. This multi-disciplinary field can tempt both students and instructors to stray from the basic business principles they should take away from the course. Blackwell keeps students focused on consumer decision making as it applies specifically to an overall understanding of business theory and practices through the CDP Consumer Decision Process model. CONSUMER BEHAVIOR 10e focuses on why as well as how consumers make specific decisions and behave in certain ways: what motivates them, what captures their attention, and what retains their loyalty, turning customers into fans of an organization.

Marketing Communications Micael Dahlen, Fredrik Lange, Terry Smith, 2009-12-21 Marketing Communications A Brand Narrative Approach is a mainstream student-driven text which gives prominence to the driving force of all Marketing Communications: the imperative of Branding. The book aims to engage students in an entertaining, informative way, setting the conceptual mechanics of Marketing Communications in a contemporary, dynamic context. It includes key current trends such as Brand narrative approach. Cases such as Dove, Harley Davidson, Nike, and World of Warcraft feature real-life salient examples which are engaging for students and reflect the growth of co-authored brand stories to help build and maintain brands by customer engagement through meaningful dialogues. Media neutral, multi-media approach. This text has a sound exploration of online and offline synergy, combining one message delivery and multi-media exposures through examples of companies and political campaigns using non-traditional media to reach groups not locked into normal channels. This brand new text features an impressive mixture of real-life brand case studies underpinned with recent academic research and market place dynamics. The format is structured into three sections covering analysis, planning, and implementation and control of Marketing Communications. Using full-colour examples of brands and student-friendly diagrams, the book acknowledges that the modern student learns visually as well as through text. COMPANION WEBSITE www.marketing.comms.com
