Fable For Another Time French Modernist Library:

Fable for Another Time Louis-Ferdinand Celine, 2003-01-01 The tale of a man imprisoned and reviled by his own countrymen the Fable follows its character's decline from virulent hatred to near madness as a result of his violent frustration with the hypocrisy and banality of his fellow human beings In part because of the story's clear link to his own case and because of the legal and political difficulties this presented Celine was compelled to push his famously elliptical brilliantly vitriolic language to new and extraordinary extremes in Fable for Another Time The resulting linguistic and stylistic innovation make this work stand out as one of the most original and revealing literary undertakings of its time BOOK

Anne Jacobson Schutte, Thomas Kuehn, Silvana Seidel Menchi, 2001-09-01 This collection offers a variety of approaches to aspects of women's lives It moves beyond men's prescriptive pronouncements about female nature to women's lived experiences replacing the singular woman with plural women and illuminating female agency The contributors show that women's lives changed over the life course and differed according to region and social class They also demonstrate that in the early modern period the largely private spaces in women's lives were not enclosed worlds isolated from the public spaces in which men operated Contributors to this important collection are leading international scholars and offer strong substantial and archival based research Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Publications of
