Goethe's Lyric Poems in English Translation Prior to 1860 Lucretia Van Tuyl Simmons, 1919 The Golden Book Magazine, 1924 Isidore of Seville's Etymologies: Complete English Translation, 2005 Volume two of Isidore of Seville's Etymologies books XI XX plus Index of Latin words Literary World: Choice Readings from the Best New Books, with Critical Reviews, 1888 The Oxford Guide to Literature in English

Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e.g. Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e.g. poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e.g. the Thousand and One Nights or writers e.g. Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e.g. Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e.g. Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators

The Golden Volcano Jules Verne, 2008-01-01 The Golden Volcano thrusts two Canadian cousins unexpectedly bequeathed a mining claim in the Klondike into the middle of the gold rush where they encounter disease disaster extremes of weather and human nature twisted by a passion for gold A deathbed confidence sends the two searching for a fabulous gold filled volcano on the shore of the Arctic Ocean But nature both human and physical hasn't finished with them and their story plays out with the nail biting adventure of an action thriller and the moral and emotional force of high drama Like many of the works left unpublished when Jules Verne died The Golden Volcano was altered and edited by his son Michel This first translation from the original manuscript allows readers of English to rediscover the pleasures of Verne's storytelling in its original form and to enjoy a virtually unknown gem of action adventure and style from a master of French literature
