TV in the USA Vincent LoBrutto, 2018-01-04 This three volume set is a valuable resource for researching the history of American television. An encyclopedic range of information documents how television forever changed the face of media and continues to be a powerful influence on society. What are the reasons behind enduring popularity of television genres such as police crime dramas, soap operas, sitcoms, and reality TV? What impact has television had on the culture and morality of American life? Does television largely emulate and reflect real life and society or vice versa? How does television's influence differ from that of other media such as newspapers and magazines, radio, movies, and the Internet? These are just a few of the questions explored in the three volume encyclopedia TV in the USA: A History of Icons, Idols, and Ideas. This expansive set covers television from 1950 to the present day, addressing shows of all genres, well known programs, and short lived series alike broadcast on the traditional and cable networks. All three volumes lead off with a keynote essay regarding the technical and historical features of the decade's covered. Each entry on a specific show investigates the narrative themes and history of the program, provides comprehensive information about when the show started and ended and why, and identifies the star players, directors, producers, and other key members of the crew of each television production. The set also features essays that explore how a particular program or type of show has influenced or reflected American society, and it includes numerous sidebars packed with interesting data, related information, and additional insights into the subject matter. Encyclopedia of Television Shows Vincent Terrace, 2017-12-28 This is a supplement to the author's Encyclopedia of Television Shows 1925-2010. It covers 1,612 series broadcast between January 1, 2011 and December 31, 2016. Major networks ABC, CBS, the CW, Fox, and NBC are covered, along with many cable channels such as AMC, Disney, Nickelodeon, Bravo, Lifetime, Discovery, TNT, Comedy Central, and History Channel. Alphabetical entries provide storylines, casts, networks, and running dates. A performer index is included.
