Using an Alma:

Objective: Students will understand an almanac, its purpose, and how to find information.

Other effective ways to get information and advice about opening your business include attending seminars and business conferences. In fact, you can find an online guide to searching for business opportunities, such as www.opportunity.com, on the Internet, and contact trade associations and government departments and independent organizations.

Although some entry barriers exist, the internet does so thoroughly that even small businesses can overcome them when offering unique goods and services. An example of this is etsy.com, an online marketplace for uniquely designed and handmade items. In fact, it is estimated that 10% of the products sold on etsy.com are handmade (Bryant, 2012). The site is owned by Etsy Inc. and has over 1 million users in more than 100 countries. It is a highly successful example of a small business competing in a crowded market.

Background: A case of myelodysplasia with hyper- and hypogranulocytosis, a condition resembling the giant granulocyte disorder, was reported. The patient was treated by the physician in 1989. In the 1990s, Benjamin Franklin started publishing the Franklin Standard in King City, America's oldest newspaper, and finally he wrote his own, the first issue in 1996. In 1998, he died and left a position for his son.
