Jsc Out Question

Brigt Dale, Ingrid Bay-Larsen, Berit Skorstad

Jsc Out Question:

It's a Question of Space Clayton C. Anderson, 2018-07-01 Having spent over 150 days on his first tour of the International Space Station it's safe to say that Clayton C Anderson knows a thing or two about space travel Now retired and affectionately known as Astro Clay by his many admirers on social media and the Internet Anderson has fielded thousands of questions over the years about spaceflight living in space and what it's like to be an astronaut Written with honesty and razor sharp wit It's a Question of Space gathers Anderson's often humorous answers to these questions and more in a book that will beguile young adults and space buffs alike Covering topics as intriguing as walking in space what astronauts are supposed to do when they see UFOs and what role astronauts play in espionage Anderson's book is written in an accessible question and answer format that covers nearly all aspects of life in space imaginable From living in zero gravity to going to the bathroom up there It's a Question of Space leaves no stone unturned in this witty firsthand account of life as an astronaut

Raising Capital on Arab Equity Markets Lu'ayy Minwer

Al-Rimawi,2012-02-01 This first book of its kind discusses in particular the role of investor protection as regards disclosure when issuers are offering securities to the public with full descriptions of the securities markets and stock exchanges in seventeen Arab jurisdictions In two interrelated parts it examines both the regional macroeconomic matrix and a detailed case study that of Jordan in order to analyse the development and characteristics of an Arab regulatory model Among the important issues and topics arising in the course of the analysis are the following relevance of international regulatory standards to Arab securities markets mandatory versus voluntary securities disclosure the fundamentals of the Islamic financial system role of riba and gharar nature and impact of Shari a s unquantifiable juridical risks on the modus operandi of Arab securities markets macroeconomic adjustment policies and structural adjustment programmes in several Arab countries recent economic and Arab capital markets impact in the wake of the Arab Spring extent of different countries reliance on Shari a as a constitutional source constitutional challenges to the imposition of interest the need for the positive law to compel securities disclosure under Shari a shareholders remedies when suing for fraud or negligent misstatements liability for misleading or inaccurate disclosure under the general law of the UK and a selected Arab jurisdiction prospectus liability under the statutory regime of the UK and an Arab regulatory regime bars to rescission of contract Comparative UK and Shari a aspects and Arab UK regulatory agencies enforcement prosecutorial administrative and civil remedies The author closely examines various instruments deployed for conveying securities disclosure and dissemination of information and looks extensively at relevant rulings as enunciated by an Arab court of cassation He then constructs a model of an effective securities disclosure regime in order to provide better investor protection for shareholders under Shari a Among the strengths of Dr Lu ayy Minwer Al Rimawi s book is the fact that at all times he adopts a comparative approach not only as between different Arab systems but also with an appreciation of the legal position in the UK and the European Union and elsewhere The Hon Mr Justice Sir William Blair Q C High Court Judge in the UK and Chairman of the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Tribunal As the first in depth discussion of the regulation of Arab capital markets in English with an eye to international standards and the policy issues involved and with attention focused on the central question of how the law can properly protect investors this book will commend itself to all those with an interest in securities markets in the Arab world

The Will to Drill - Mining in Arctic Communités Brigt Dale,Ingrid Bay-Larsen,Berit Skorstad,2017-10-04 This book focuses on the connections between mining activities knowledge politics and the valuation of landscape in selected case sites in Russia Greenland and Norway whilst considering the interrelated aspects of industrialized natural resource based development and environmental concerns in the Arctic The case studies in these three different countries reveals that there are indeed multiple Arctics not least concerning the way extractive industries are received and perceived and that national legislation public awareness and economic alternatives are amongst the variables that influence to what extent environmental ramifications of mining are accepted Through analysis of political discourses legal documents grey literature discussions in local and national media and empirical material from in site fieldwork the authors seek to understand how debates about mining reveal more general conflicts and concerns about how to define sustainability The book contributes to the overall debates on both extractive industries and development trends in the Arctic and will as such be of interest for both established scholars and students as well as policy makers and the public The compilation of cases and variety of analytical perspectives will further stimulate the ongoing debates concerning the impacts of extractive industries on communities both in the Arctic and beyond
