Luminous English Edition:

The American Monthly Magazine ,1836      Bulletin of the International Railway Association International Railway Association,1909      Scripture in Doctrinal Dispute Frances M. Young,2024-08-13 How did Scripture function in early arguments about doctrine Historical criticism has revealed a gap between scripture and the mainstream doctrines that define Christianity today Not the least of these are the Trinity and two natures of Christ widely accepted since the fifth century but seemingly unfounded in historical readings of Scripture How did these dogmas become so integral to the faith in the first place Frances M Young tackles this monumental question in a culmination of decades of biblical and patristic research The second of two volumes Scripture in Doctrinal Dispute illuminates the role of biblical hermeneutics in the debates that forged Christian dogma on the nature of God Young shows how the theological commitments to God as the sole creator of all else from nothing shaped fourth and fifth century disputes over Christology and the Trinity Played out in the great councils of the fourth century and beyond these conflicts drove the need to discern doctrinal coherence in scripture The different sides relied on different prooftexts and the rule of faith served as the criterion by which scriptural interpretation was measured thereby forming the basis of the creeds Nuanced and ecumenical Scripture in Doctrinal Dispute completes Young s magnum opus closing the gap between scripture and Christian tradition Young s magisterial study holds widespread implications for not only patristics but also exegesis and systematic theology      Bulletin of the International Railway Congress Association International Railway Congress Association,1909      Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy of Mind and Nature Douglas S. Duckworth,2018-12-18 Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy of Mind and Nature offers an engaging philosophical overview of Tibetan Buddhist thought Integrating competing and complementary perspectives on the nature of mind and reality Douglas Duckworth reveals the way that Buddhist theory informs Buddhist practice in various Tibetan traditions Duckworth draws upon a contrast between phenomenology and ontology to highlight distinct starting points of inquiries into mind and nature in Buddhism and to illuminate central issues confronted in Tibetan Buddhist philosophy This thematic study engages some of the most difficult and critical topics in Buddhist thought such as the nature of mind and the meaning of emptiness across a wide range of philosophical traditions including the Middle Way of Madhyamaka Yogacara also known as Mind Only and tantra Duckworth provides a richly textured overview that explores the intersecting nature of mind language and world depicted in Tibetan Buddhist traditions Further this book puts Tibetan philosophy into conversation with texts and traditions from India Europe and America exemplifying the possibility and potential for a transformative conversation in global philosophy      A Harmony of Views Khenchen Thrangu,2020-08-04 Three songs by recognized masters of different Tibetan Buddhist traditions illustrate what their views have in common with commentary by Thrangu Rinpoche and songs by Ju Mipham Changkya Rolpay Dorje and Ch gyam Trungpa Do different Tibetan Buddhist traditions share an essential common view The great Geluk scholar Changkya Rolpay Dorje 1717 1786 wrote a song describing the view of the Middle Way comparing it to a mother Later the nonsectarian polymath Ju Mipham Rinpoche 1846 1912 and the influential Kagyu master Ch gyam Trungpa Rinpoche 1939 1987 wrote songs modeled upon it that describe the views of dzogchen and mahamudra one comparing dzogchen to a jewel and the other comparing mahamudra to a lover Even though the imagery and the specific points each author makes are different the songs share many characteristics in structure and content Read together the three songs show how the essential points of these three practices are the same and reveal how Buddhism s various traditions including the pinnacles of the Middle Way dzogchen and mahamudra are harmonious The three songs are presented with a commentary by Khenchen Thrangu Rinpoche who explains how studying the profound view helps develop the certainty that is necessary to bring meditation practice to fruition He shows how songs such as these can serve as antidotes to discouragement and provide help to people who have had strong meditation experiences but find themselves unable to sustain a high level of practice Thrangu Rinpoche explains that in comparison to oral instructions and treatises songs of this kind are of special benefit because of their engaging eloquence The songs are not long and they are a delight to read reread and memorize By clarifying the view again and again in this way they offer continual inspiration to practitioners
