Disclaimer

These solutions have been produced by Maths4Everyone Limited. While We have used reasonable endeavours to verify the accuracy of these solutions, these solutions are provided on an "as is" basis and We make no warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, in relation to these solutions.

We make no warranty that these solutions will meet Your requirements or provide the results which You want, or that they are complete, or that they are error-free. If You find anything confusing within these solutions then it is Your responsibility to seek clarification from Your teacher, tutor or mentor.

We request that You use the "contact" link on Our web site to inform Us of any errors or omissions that You find. We will update these solutions and correct errors that We become aware of. We recommend that You check Our web site for the most up-to-date version of these solutions.

The methods used in these solutions, where relevant, are methods which have been successfully used with students. The method shown for a particular question is not always the only method and We do not claim that the method we have used is necessarily the most efficient or 'best' method. We will, from time to time, update a solution to show a different method if We feel that it is a good idea to do so.

Sometimes a method used in these solutions might be unfamiliar to You. If You are able to use a different method to obtain the correct answer then We would usually recommend that You keep using your existing method and not change to the method that We have used here. However, the choice of method is always up to You and We believe that it is often useful if You know more than one method to solve a particular type of problem.

Within these solutions We have indicated where marks might be awarded for each question. We have used B marks, M marks and A marks in a similar, but not identical, way that the exam board uses these marks within their mark schemes. We have done this for simplicity and convenience. We have sometimes interchanged B marks, M marks and A marks and We have sometimes awarded the marks in different ways to the exam board.

B1 - This is an unconditional accuracy mark (the specific number, word or phrase must be seen. This type of mark cannot be given as a result of 'follow through').

M1 - This is a method mark. We have indicated where method marks might be awarded for the method that is shown. If You use a different method, then the same number of method marks would be awarded but We are not able to indicate for what the marks would be awarded for Your particular method. When appropriate, You should seek clarity and download the relevant examiner mark scheme from the exam board's web site.

A1 - These are accuracy marks. Accuracy marks are typically awarded after method marks. If the correct answer is obtained, then You should normally (but not always) expect to be awarded all of the method marks (provided that You have shown Your method) and all of the accuracy marks.

Some lessons offer alternative routes through the curriculum such as practising indices by solving radical equations while others concentrate on difficult ideas like appreciating that not all mathematical relationships are linear. Each plan consists of a teacher's sheet providing the aims and objectives of the lesson, a lesson starter, main phase, plenary and homework ideas, each with suggested timeframes, guidance on how to adapt the activities to cater for students working at different levels and online resources including links to useful websites, material to display on the whiteboard and additional ideas. Each plan also includes a photocopiable or downloadable student task sheet that corresponds to the teacher's sheet. The lessons focus on problem solving and putting mathematics into context and are an essential resource for any busy teacher of mathematics.
