Empire in the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2011-01-01 How does a Christian render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's This book is the result of the Bingham Colloquium of 2007 that brought scholars from across North America to examine the New Testament's response to the empires of God and Caesar Two chapters lay the foundation for that response in the Old Testament's concept of empire and six others address the response to the notion of empire both human and divine in the various authors of the New Testament A final chapter investigates how the church fathers regarded the matter The essays display various methods and positions together however they offer a representative sample of the current state of study of the notion of empire in the New Testament Empire in the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2011-01-01 How does a Christian render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's This book is the result of the Bingham Colloquium of 2007 that brought scholars from across North America to examine the New Testament's response to the empires of God and Caesar Two chapters lay the foundation for that response in the Old Testament's concept of empire and six others address the response to the notion of empire both human and divine in the various authors of the New Testament A final chapter investigates how the church fathers regarded the matter The essays display various methods and positions together however they offer a representative sample of the current state of study of the notion of empire in the New Testament An Introduction to Empire in the New Testament Adam Winn, 2016-06-24 Explore how empire is a crucial foreground for reading and interpreting the New Testament In the last three decades significant attention has been given to the way in which New Testament texts engage and respond to the imperial world in which they were written The purpose of the present volume is to introduce students and non specialists to the growing subfield of New Testament studies known as empire studies Contributors seek to make readers aware of the significant work that has already been produced while also pointing them to new ways in which this field is moving forward The contributors are Bruce W Longenecker Richard A Horsley Warren Carter Adam Winn Eric D Barreto Beth M Sheppard Neil Elliot James R Harrison Harry O Maier Deborah Krause Jason A Whitlark Matthew R Hauge Kelly D Liebgood and Davina C Lopez Features Essays from a diverse group of interpreters who at times have differing presuppositions methods and concerns Articles introduce students and non specialists to the Roman imperial realities regularly encountered by first and second century Christians Contributions explore the strategies employed by early Christians to respond to the Roman empire The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

The New Testament in the Graeco-Roman World Marius Nel, Jan G. van der Watt, Fika J. van Rensburg, 2015 Born in Pretoria South Africa Abraham Abe J Malherbe 1930-2012 taught Theology of New Testament and Early Christianity at Abilene Christian University and was Buckingham Professor of New Testament Criticism and Literature Emeritus at Yale Divinity School A member of The Society of Biblical Literature for over 50 years Abe was a highly productive scholar who made major contributions in several areas This festschrift in honor of Prof Abe Malherbe is the product of South African and international scholars honoring the memory of a great New Testament scholar Series Theology in Africa Vol 4 Subject Religious Studies Christianity

The Arts and the Bible Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2024-01-04 Throughout its history the Christian church has had a troubled relationship with the arts whether literature poetry music visual arts or other forms of artistic expression This volume is not designed to resolve the issues but it is designed to present a number of different statements about various dimensions of the arts in their relationship to the Bible The Bible is the document that stands behind the Christian church as an inspiration to it and to its arts As a result we have divided this volume into six parts perspectives on the arts culture and art visual enactments contemporary interpretations music and the Bible and literature Many of the issues that the history of the interaction of the arts and the Bible within the Christian church has uncovered are insightfully and artfully addressed by this book The wide range of contributors runs the gamut from practicing artists of various media to scholars within varied academic fields

The Church, Then and Now Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2012-10-26 The church is one of the most intriguing and significant institutions on earth Because its essence and character are so widely misunderstood this is a timely book The church is not a mere human institution though it is made up of human beings in community Its roles and responsibilities are momentous but all the elements of its organization came about as the church developed and attempted to fulfill its divine mandate not as forms given at its founding These papers from a Bingham Colloquium at McMaster Divinity College treat the church then in studies of the church in the various parts of the New Testament canon followed by a historical study of the church under attack in places where it did not survive The latter part of the book contains essays by several church practitioners from now who discuss their insights about and experiences with postmodern society home churches megachurches and the missional church Such a combination of biblical theology history and practice makes this a valuable book for scholars and practitioners in fact for all thinking members of the church founded by Jesus Christ

New Testament Christological Hymns Matthew E. Gordley, 2018-08-07 We know that the earliest Christians sang hymns But are some of these early Christian hymns preserved for us in the New Testament Matthew Gordley takes a new look at didactic hymns in the Greco Roman and Jewish world of the early church considering how they might function in the New Testament and what they could tell us about early Christian worship

The Letter to the Romans Stanley E. Porter, Francis G. H. Pang, 2018-05-24 Written at a time when his ideas and practices were provoking opposition even from fellow Christians the Apostle Paul articulates in his Letter to the Romans his understanding of God's plan for humanity and discusses the implications of this plan for different groups of people Romans is considered by many as the most theologically significant and sophisticated book of the Bible This volume is designed to bridge the gap between studying Romans as an academic enterprise and experiencing how Romans can speak today in the life of the church All of the chapters in this volume especially those devoted to the content of Romans were written with both exegesis and application in mind All of the contributors to this volume believe that Romans has a crucial voice within the church today and that those who preach teach and study the book need to be attentive to its witness and to its timeliness

Resisting Empire Jason A. Whitlark, 2014-07-31 This book offers a fresh reading about the purpose for which Hebrews was written In this book Whitlark argues that Hebrews engages both the negative pressures persecution and positive attractions honor prosperity of its audience's Roman imperial context Consequently the audience of Hebrews appears to be in danger of defecting to the pagan imperial context Due to the imperial nature of these pressures Hebrews obliquely critiques the imperial script according to the rhetorical expectations in the first century Mediterranean world namely through the use of figured speech This critique is the primary focus of Whitlark's project Whitlark examines Hebrews's figured response to the imperial hopes boasted by Rome along with Rome's claim to eternal rule to the power of life and death and to be led by the true victorious ruler Whitlark also makes a case for discerning Hebrews's response to the challenges of Flavian triumph Whitlark concludes his study by suggesting that Hebrews functions much like Revelation that is to resist the draw of the Christians Roman imperial context This is done in part by providing a covert opposition to Roman imperial discourse He also offers evaluation of relapse theories for Hebrews of Hebrews's place among early Christian martyrdom and of the nature of the resistance that Hebrews promotes
