

Examples of moral lessons from fables:

The Hare and the Tortoise - Taking things for granted, smugness, or thinking too highly about yourself will cause you to miss your goal.

The Country Mouse and the City Mouse - Thinking that the grass is always greener somewhere else. What's suitable for you may not be for someone else. Being satisfied with who and where you are.

The Golden Touch (King Midas) - Making money for money's sake is a misguided goal. Money doesn't buy a "rich" life by itself. If you have your sight on a goal, to the exclusion of those you love, you can bring great unhappiness.

The Sun and the Wind - It's not always the direct and blustering way that gets things done the best.

The Lion and the Mouse - Being smaller than another doesn't mean you can't think big or do big things. Even the small can contribute.
