Memory of fire Eduardo H. Galeano, 1988 Memory of Fire Eduardo Galeano, 1985 A re creation of the conquest of the Americas and Latin America divided into three parts In the first are the myths of pre Columbian America in the second the history of America unfolds from the 15th to 19th century and in the third 1900 to 1986 This trilogy differs from most in that it presents the making of the New World from the viewpoint of Latin America Tango And The Political Economy Of Passion Marta Savigliano, 2018-02-06 What is tango Dance music and lyrics of course but also a philosophy a strategy a commodity even a disease This book explores the politics of tango tracing tango's travels from the brothels of Buenos Aires to the cabarets of Paris and the shako dansu clubs of Tokyo The author is an Argentinean political theorist and a dance professor at the University of California at Riverside She uses her tango tongue to tell interwoven tales of sexuality gender race class and national identity Along the way she unravels relations between machismo and colonialism postmodernism and patriarchy exoticism and commodification In the end she arrives at a discourse on decolonization as intellectual unlearning Marta Savigliano's voice is highly personal and political Her account is at once about the exoticization of tango and about her own fate as a Third World woman intellectual A few sentences from the preface are indicative Tango is my womb and my tongue a trench where I can shelter and resist the colonial invitations to universalism a stubborn fatalist mood when technocrats and theorists offer optimistic and seriously revised versions of alternatives for the Third World an opportunistic metaphor to talk about myself and my stories as a success of the civilization development colonization of Am ca Latina and a strategy to figure out through the history of the tango a hooked up story of people like myself Tango is my changing resourceful source of identity And because I am where I am outside tango hurts and comforts me Tango is a sad thought that can be danced Savigliano employs the tools of ethnography history body movement analysis and political economy Well illustrated with drawings and photos dating back to the 1880s this book is highly readable entertaining and provocative It is sure to be recognized as an important contribution in the fields of cultural studies performance studies decolonization and women of color feminism Agent of Empire Brady Harrison,2004 At the heart of our ongoing interest in Walker says Harrison is the need to understand the ever shifting ambitions and arguments that have driven American economic military and paramilitary ventures around the globe for the past 150 years Ethnic Expositions in Italy, 1880 to 1940 Guido Abbattista,2024-03-22 Comprehensively analyzing for the first time the phenomenon of ethnic living expositions in Italy between the 19th and 20th centuries this book deals with the subject from a comparative European perspective and over the long term studying analogies and differences in precedents as far back as the early modern age The research which seeks to go beyond the simplistic concept of human zoos intends to highlight the intentions assumptions and mechanisms of realization of the exhibitions of exotic living humans and the reactions from both the exhibited subjects and the public exploiting a wide variety of heterogeneous sources capable of bringing out a kind of widespread popular ethno anthropological ideas and the elements of racism contained in it The book contributes to the understanding of Western mindsets and attitudes towards human diversity as they emerge from mass spectacular events that have over time become an international business The present edition refers to the second Italian edition containing an update discussing studies on the subject that have appeared between 2013 and 2021 Ethnic Expositions in Italy intends to fill a historiographical gap and to align Italian historiographies with European ones which have long since come to terms with this legacy of the past and have explored its various historical manifestations in depth This book is an excellent source for researchers and students alike as well as those interested in the mechanisms that have helped shape European ideas and sensibilities on race and ethno anthropological diversity The Art of Indigenous Inculturation Sison, Antonio D.,2021-06-16 The inculturation of the Christian message is examined through examples of art from Africa the Philippines and the Mexican American community Latina/o/x Studies and Biblical Studies Jacqueline M. Hidalgo,2020-03-09 In Latina o x Studies and Biblical Studies Jacqueline M Hidalgo introduces Latina o x studies for a biblical studies audience She examines crucial themes that bridge the two fields themes such as identity and difference with special attention to ethnicity and race migration with attention to homing diaspora transnationalism and citizenship She discusses the place of Latina o x studies in relevant Hebrew Bible and New Testament scholarship on these topics Ultimately this essay argues that Latina o x studies epistemological commitments to complexity relationality particularity and collaborative knowledge making can help ground critical interpretive approaches in biblical studies She also imagines a way in which biblical studies capaciously encompassing the study of Jewish and Christian literature in the ancient world as well as Jewish and Christian biblical reception and rejection histories and the very category of scriptures more broadly could deepen Latina o x studies own thinking about canon formation and history

Hamlet,1998-09-14 Afrocentricity the placement of African values and ideals at the center of the discussion surrounding African culture discourse and behavior is an important framework that has emerged over the past decade In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays that illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought In Part I the basics of Afrocentric ideology and methodology are examined Part II focuses on Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication The Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic is covered in Part III with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television Part IV provides a glimpse into the future of Afrocentric visions Theatres of Rebellion in Nicaragua Alberto Guevara,2022-03-04 This book examines the critical connection between revolts and revolutions to larger notions of social and cultural performances in Nicaraguan social cultural and political life To understand social relations in Nicaragua today it is crucial to look at those highly theatricalized and rhetorical performances of power and resistance that have spanned specific national spaces for centuries The book looks therefore at the history of Nicaragua from the colonial period to the Sandinista Revolution to frame contingent and temporal social and cultural processes that have become heightened and revealing of the social relations in revolution The contemporary staging of the ancient El Gueguense play for instance illustrates a social space that reveals contemporary issues of oppression and power Tapping into the spirit of self consciousness reflexivity and narrational disruptions the book uses the conventions of theatre such as audience and actor relations to make available to readers the theatrical intimacy of interlocutors and researcher The Story of Corn Betty Fussell,2004-12-15 This interweaving of folklore history and
