Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print, 1990-1991 R R Bowker Publishing,1990-09      The Student's Manual

Chandler B. Beach,1909      Videoland Daniel Herbert,2014-01-24 Videoland offers a comprehensive view of the tangible phase of consumer video when Americans largely accessed movies as material commodities at video rental stores Video stores served as a vital locus of movie culture from the early 1980s until the early 2000s changing the way Americans socialized around movies and collectively made movies meaningful When films became tangible as magnetic tapes and plastic discs movie culture flowed out from the theater and the living room entered the public retail space and became conflated with shopping and salesmanship In this process video stores served as a crucial embodiment of movie culture s historical move toward increased flexibility adaptability and customization In addition to charting the historical rise and fall of the rental industry Herbert explores the architectural design of video stores the social dynamics of retail encounters the video distribution industry the proliferation of video recommendation guides and the often surprising persistence of the video store as an adaptable social space of consumer culture Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork cultural geography and archival research Videoland provides a wide ranging exploration of the pivotal role video stores played in the history of motion pictures and is a must read for students and scholars of media history

Seeing Politics Sophie Harman,2019-07-04 Visual politics and the aesthetic turn in international relations have emphasized the power of the image in world politics Postcolonial and decolonial feminist theory shows the urgent need to rethink research and teaching methods What happens when these concepts converge and such thinking is translated into practice Engaging with a broad range of topics the politics of everyday life health HIV AIDS Africa post colonialism gender feminist theory visuality film and method in Seeing Politics Sophie Harman looks at scholars who are pushing the boundaries of how they do research how they communicate their research to a broader audience and what counts as scholarship in world politics Through a detailed exploration of the political process of film production from inception and co production to distribution and exhibition she addresses the tricky transnational relationships government gatekeeping and global hierarchies of film governance that control and marginalize the stories and people we see Fundamentally Seeing Politics is about how narrative feature film challenges and advances the discipline of international relations revealing aspects of politics that would otherwise remain unseen and unaddressed Film is not just a way of communicating research It is a method that produces research and visibility advancing research practice and knowledge in international relations Innovative and compelling this book is about the politics of seeing being seen and what stops us from seeing

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer,2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice

Fahrenheit 9-12 Aaron Reichel Esq.,2004-12-15 The film Fahrenheit 9 11 convinces nearly all who see it and believe it that George Bush was unfit to lead on 9 11 and beyond Fahrenheit 9 12 this book convinces nearly all who read it that a review of the sources of virtually every frame and every claim in the film reveals that virtually everything in Fahrenheit 9 11 is arguably misleading or inaccurate Fahrenheit 9 12 is not for everyone it is just for those intellectually honest people who hate President Bush as well as for those who do not The Bush bashers are doomed to four years of misery and frustration unless the distortions on which they base their bashes will be exposed to them Fahrenheit 9 12 brings relief to those who have taken Michael Moore s criticisms of President Bush to heart and who have suffered heartache or heartburn ever since Many people who do not hate President Bush will be relieved and reinvigorated once they discover the lack of merit of most of the film s assaults on Bush s character intelligence and judgment Readers who saw or boycotted Moore s film can appreciate Reichel s rebuttals enough to want to show his book to or buy copies for friends colleagues team mates teachers students and or relatives who believe that Fahrenheit 9 11 the film deserves even a fraction of the respect acclaim and or popularity it has received thereby reducing tension in many personal or even professional relationships Fahrenheit 9 12 this book replaces ad hominem discord with rational discourse

War Culture and the Contest of Images Dora Apel,2012-10-19 War Culture and the Contest of Images analyzes the relationships among contemporary war documentary practices and democratic ideals Dora Apel examines a wide variety of images and cultural representations of war in the United States and the Middle East including photography performance art video games reenactment and social media images Simultaneously she explores the merging of photojournalism and artistic practices the effects of visual framing and the construction of both sanctioned and counter hegemonic narratives in a global contest of images As a result of the global visual culture in which anyone may produce as well as consume public imagery the wide variety of visual and documentary practices present realities that would otherwise be invisible or officially off limits In our digital era the prohibition and control of images has become nearly impossible to maintain Using carefully chosen case studies such as Krzysztof Wodiczko s video projections and public works in response to 9 11 and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan the performance works of Coco Fusco and Regina Galindo and the practices of Israeli and Palestinian artists Apel posits that contemporary war images serve as mediating agents in social relations and as a source of protection or refuge for those robbed of formal or state sanctioned citizenship While never suggesting that documentary practices are objective translations of reality Apel shows that they are powerful polemical tools both for legitimizing war and for making its devastating effects visible In modern warfare and in the accompanying culture of war that capitalism produces as a permanent feature of modern society she asserts that the contest of images is as critical as the war on the ground     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997
