

Comprehension

Read the following extract from the book "Holes" by Louis Sachar, then answer the questions which follow:

- 1 As Stanley tried to turn over on his cot, he was afraid it was going to collapse under a weight. He barely fit in it. When he finally managed to roll over on his back, the sneaker was so bad that he had to turn over again and try to lie on his back. It didn't smell like sour milk.
- 2 Though it was night, the air was still very warm. Armpits were the only two cool spots. Back at school, a bully named Derrick Dunne used to torment Stanley. The teachers never took Stanley's complaints seriously, because Derrick was so much bigger than Stanley. Some teachers even seemed to find it amusing that a boy as big as Derrick would pick on someone as big as Stanley.
- 3 On the day Stanley was arrested, Derrick had taken Stanley's sneakers and, after a long game of come-and-get-it, finally dropped it in the trash can in the boys' bathroom. By the time Stanley retrieved it, he had missed his bus and had to walk home. It was raining while he was walking home, carrying his wet notebook, with a lot of pages of homework to copy the ruined pages that the sneakers fell from the sky.
- 4 "I was walking home and the sneakers fell from the sky," he told the judge. "One hit me on the head."
- 5 It had hurt, too.
- 6 They hadn't exactly fallen from the sky. They had just fallen from under a freeway overpass when the shoe hit him on the head. Stanley took it as some kind of sign. His father had been trying to figure out a way to get rid of the sneakers, and suddenly a pair of sneakers fell on top of him, seemingly out of nowhere. It was as if they had fallen from God.
- 7 Naturally, he had no way of knowing they belonged to Clyde Livingstone. In fact, the shoes were anything but sweet. Years of being worn had had a bad case of foot odor. Stanley couldn't help but think that there was something special about the shoes, that they would somehow provide the key to solving the mystery of the treasure. It was too much of a coincidence to be a mere accident. It didn't like he was holding destiny's shoes.

Question 1: Comprehension

1.1 Who is the author of the book "Holes"? (1)

1.2 Name all the characters mentioned in this extract. (5)
