Calkins-Treworgy,2019-07-20 College is a wonderful time in a young person s life making friends and connections growing as a person figuring out what you re going to do for a living And don t forget the parties But for one group of students at Amelia Community College the good times cease to roll at a Halloween party when a costumed monstrosity slaughters almost all of the partygoers A small quartet of friends who survive the slaughter now find themselves wondering if the maniac from the party was just a deadly costumed loon or since this IS Amelia City something far worse D-Day Apocalypse JT

White,2024-12-24 The common world has changed forever following the twenty eight hour electromagnetic pulses resulting from an extensive coronal mass ejection from the sun As a result new COVID strains and economic collapse have decimated the population Two recent college graduates face starvation when their friend and benefactor fails to return The young adults joined together by hidden feelings and kinship of home embark on a journey to rejoin their families that are hopefully still alive A chance encounter with a grizzled prepper speeds them along with detour after detour Taking on more passengers they re rewarded with unexpected treasures and the responsibility of two more lives When the prepper finds his destination in ruins they are yet again bound for home A bittersweet and fated homecoming will send them on an unexpected and perilous pilgrimage that adds two wagging tails and a refugee Having been separated by divorce illness and hardship the prepper is unsure of how he will be received by the family he hasn't seen since before D Day. Before they can reunite the prepper with his children the warning of a threat becomes all too real and threatens to change the future of the newly formed group.

Log Cabin Years Cindy Ross, 2021-01-19 Cindy Ross is one of today's most eloquent and thoughtful writers on the connection between humans and the natural world. Richard Louv, New York Times bestselling author The Log Cabin Years is the inspiring story of how award-winning author Cindy Ross and her husband, artist Todd Gladfelter, a young couple totally inexperienced in construction, built a log home using raw trees and without the use of power. How they recycled and used salvage to supplement their materials and how the home went on to become a living, breathing part of their lives together. With a perfect mix of memoir and practical information, The Log Cabin Years explores the ways the couple not only developed their building skills but defined the values and virtues by which they would continue to live: self-confidence, freedom, and independence. As the cabin walls grew, so too did Cindy and Todd as individuals and as partners. Building a home forced the couple to learn to argue constructively, communicate openly, and work within the parameters of each person's unique personality. The Log Cabin Years is a great example of how two people can learn to work together through difficult times, both mental and physical. For their efforts, they were able to build and then live in a beautiful home, debt-free. From hosting Appalachian Trail hikers to offering a sanctuary for recovering veterans, from providing a place to homeschool and teach their children to launching Todd's very successful career as a chainsaw carving artist, the cabin has given back, fostering creativity, learning, and healing. Building your own home has long been an American dream. The desire and need to live more sustainably has seeped into all aspects of our lives. The Log Cabin Years will speak to all people who wish to live a more sustainable life, empower themselves, build relationships, learn skills, and perhaps create a hand-built home of their own.
