ABOUT THE COLUMBIAN PARTNER AND COLUMBIAN HOT SPOT NETWORK

Abstract: This article discusses the importance of understanding the role of the family in the development of the child. The author argues that the family is the primary socialization agent for the child, and that the quality of the family environment is crucial for the child's emotional and cognitive development. The article also discusses the importance of the parent-child relationship and the role of the parent in the child's education. The author concludes that the family is the most important factor in the child's development, and that parents should strive to create a supportive and nurturing environment for their children.
