

The Most Influential Person in My Life

Certain people in our lives have this special ability to inspire. They give us strength when things get tough, when we feel pessimistic due to some events in our lives, or they motivate us to do the things we want but are afraid of. They influence us by the way they live their lives. There are many people who can be role models for me. One of them is my stepfather. Him I admire most of all. He helped me in lots of situations, and I became the person I wanted because of him. He is also a role model in the lives of most people who have the privilege of knowing him. The reasons why I value my stepfather are his optimism, hard work, and his kindness.

To begin with, my stepfather was left to look after himself at a very young age; after his father's passing, his mother was not quite all there. Along with having to care for himself, he had to care for his mother. He was still in school, at that time, having to do odd jobs here and there. His mother did not have much for him at the time after his father had passed away. Therefore, he was left in a situation that many would have called hopeless. Most young people would have lost hope and given themselves up to despair. However, this was not the case for my stepfather. He looked at the positive aspects of his life. While he had to work and go to school, he dreamed that one day he would become a successful pilot. Despite all the difficulties, he gave up neither working nor going to school. He pushed on with his education, and his current success in his career shows the importance of positive thinking.

One more thing I respect my stepfather for is his will to work hard. After graduating high school at the top of his class, he entered the Marine Corps, where he served in The Korean War and a Vietnam tour. After

The Best Test Preparation for the TASP, Texas Academic Skills Program
Ellen Conner, Research and Education Association, Jocelyn Chadwick-Joshua, 1992-01-01
REA's test preparation book includes two full length exams with detailed explanations based on official exams released by the administrator of the TASP. Taken by full and part time students entering Texas public colleges universities or technical institutes the TASP was designed to ensure that students obtain the skills appropriate to their grade level. Failure to pass any TASP section will result in the assignment of remedial course work in that subject. However studying the comprehensive reviews in this book will fully prepare the student to pass each section. Reviews in mathematics reading skills and writing skills are presented along with tips and sample problems to help develop reading and writing skills as well as problem solving ability. All exam sections and review material were prepared by test experts in the educational field to assure their accuracy difficulty level and application to the actual examination.
