Finding Jess First Wave English Edition:

Representing the Advantaged Daniel M. Butler, 2014-07-14 This book argues that a significant amount of bias in representation traces its roots to the information opinions and attitudes that politicians bring to office It suggests that even if all voters participated equally there would still be significant levels of bias in American politics because of differences in elite participation

Best Laid Plans Jessica Halliday Hardie, 2022-08-30 Given the range of possibilities open to women today what futures do adolescent girls dream of and pursue And how do social class and race play into their trajectories In asking young women about their aspirations in three areas school work and family Best Laid Plans demonstrates how future plans are framed by notions of gendered responsibilities and abilities Through her examination of the lives of poor working class and middle class Black and White young women as they navigate the transition to adulthood sociologist Jessica Halliday Hardie defines anew what it means for young women to come of age In particular Hardie shows how social capital either possessed or lacked is not simply a resource for planning for the future but a structure whose form and function varies by social class and race As these inequalities persist into adulthood high aspirations social capital and careful planning bolster some young women while hindering others Drawing on qualitative data from a five year period Best Laid Plans makes the case for why we need to move beyond the individual appeal to dream bigger and plan better and toward systematic changes that will put young people s aspirations within reach

Questioning Gender Robyn Ryle, 2020-08-04 Questioning Gender A Sociological Exploration serves as a point of departure for productive conversations and questions about gender and as a resource for exploring answers to many of those questions Rather than providing definitive answers this book takes a global approach and aims to challenge students preconceptions about gender and to demonstrate how gender as a system creates and reinforces inequality Author Robyn Ryle uses both historical and cross cultural approaches to help students understand the socially constructed nature of gender With a focus on contemporary topics including the MeToo movement sexual harassment in the workplace and the gender wage gap students will be prompted to think critically about past present and future gender related issues Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides

Lyric as Comedy Calista McRae, 2020-10-15 A poet walks into a bar In Lyric as Comedy Calista McRae explores the unexpected comic opportunities within recent American poems about deeply personal often embarrassing experiences Lyric poems she finds can be surprising sites of a shifting unruly comedy as seen in the work of John Berryman Robert Lowell A R Ammons Terrance Hayes Morgan Parker Natalie Shapero and Monica Youn Lyric as Comedy draws out the ways in which key American poets have struggled with persistent expectations about what expressive poetry can and should do McRae reveals how the modern lyric rather than bestowing order on the poet s thoughts and emotions can center on impropriety and confusion formal breakage and linguistic unruliness and self observation and self staging The close readings in Lyric as

Comedy also provide new insight into the theory and aesthetics of comedy taking in the indirect glancing comic affordances of poetry In doing so McRae captures varieties of humor that do not align with traditional terms centering abjection and pleasure as facets of contemporary lyric practice Against the Grain Gillian Ranson,2010-01-01 An exciting fresh and timely look at the experiences of mothers and fathers who challenge dominant cultural expectations in their efforts to care for their children Ranson s analysis offers a new way of thinking about parenting Glenda Wall Wilfrid Laurier University
