The Husband-hunter; Or, "Das Schicksal." John O'Brien Grant, 1839 The Husband-Hunter William J. O'Neill Daunt, 2024-09 Never Trust a Tiger Char Valdez, 2019-10-18 This is a fictionalized story about a circus and my great aunt Marie who was a lion tamer during the eighteenth century and early nineteenth century. She worked for the Al G Barnes Circus and later Barnum and Bailey. She traveled across the United States and Europe performing with the big cats as well as with dancing bears, giant dogs and other animals. She was known as the best dressed woman in the circus and was often billed as Princess Florines. She was injured countless times but returned to the work she loved with animals despite her injuries. She was in many creative acts and in most she played a little girl. Being of small stature and very beautiful, she played fairy tale characters in many of her acts. The Last Word Samantha Hastings, 2019-07-09 Set against the smoky gaslit allure of Victorian London, this sweetly romantic historical debut is full of humor and stars a whip-smart female heroine ahead of her time. Where one story ends, another begins. 1861 Miss Lucinda Leavitt is shocked when she learns the author of her favorite serialized novel has died before completing the story. Determined to learn how it ends, Lucinda reluctantly enlists the help of her father's young business partner Mr David Randall to track down the reclusive author's former whereabouts. David is a successful young businessman but is overwhelmed by his workload. He wants to prove himself to his late father as well as to himself. He doesn't have the time nor the interest for this endeavor, but Lucinda is not the type to take no for an answer. Their search for the elusive Mrs Smith and the rightful ending to her novel leads Lucinda and David around the country, but the truths they discover about themselves and each other are anything but fictional.
