

Graduation Speech

Hello. It is an honor for me to be here tonight to bring greetings and congratulations from the school board.

As I began thinking about what I should say to you, I discovered that I could go on for hours talking about your years at (name of school) High School . . . about the experiences you've had which prepared you for this day and for the future. I began making notes about all the advice I should share with you and about all of the many topics I wanted to cover.

Then a friend reminded me about the fate of the famous Greek philosopher, Socrates, who lived a long, long time ago.

Socrates was very intelligent. But Socrates gave long speeches, and his friends killed him.

Since I am no Socrates . . . nor do I want to end up like Socrates . . . I will be brief and to the point.

Tonight (number of graduates) seniors are graduating from (name of school) High School. The room is packed with your friends and relatives, and every person here is proud of you . . . of your accomplishments . . . and of the goals that you have reached. If each of us were to write down a definition of a successful graduate, we would quickly discover that some of the same words and phrases would be repeated over and over again. Common themes would be – dedication, perseverance, integrity, honesty, conscientiousness, dependability and hard work.

From all of the terms used to describe graduates, the one I think should receive top billing is "winner". Each and every one of you is a winner! You have demonstrated through hard work, dependability, conscientiousness, Minority Tech Anjuan Simmons, 2013-07-28 The technology field has become a key driver of the world economy. Companies like Apple, Google, Microsoft, and Facebook are not only iconic organizations but their founders are often legends in their own right. However, the ethnic and gender makeup of these companies are overwhelmingly reflections of their founders: white males. Anjuan Simmons has worked in the technology industry for 20 years as a software developer, infrastructure architect, and software project manager. His experiences as a minority in the technology industry inspired him to describe them on his blog. Minority Tech is a curated, edited, and augmented selection of those blog entries. The titles covered include The New Negro Problem, America and the Loss of the Black Genius, A Code of Conduct for Black Men, Why I Believe in Affirmative Action, What the world Needs from Trayvon Martin, 3 Reasons Why the Technology Industry Needs More Diversity, What Facebook Taught Me about Rape Prevention, and more.

Leadership for Adolescents Carolyn M. Anderson, 2013-11-19 Some say leaders are individuals who get people to do what they want them to do while others say leaders are those who are perceived by others as powerful and influential. Still others say that leaders are simply born to lead. Regardless of the definition, however, it is undeniable that leadership plays an important role in society. In Leadership for Adolescents, author Dr. Carolyn M. Anderson offers a seven-step guide to help teenagers understand the role of a leader and to teach them the skills needed for a leadership position. Detailing key characteristics, she discusses the I in leader, theme, developing a basic understanding of self and of the leadership skills, competencies, and characteristics one already possesses. She also explores essential verbal and nonverbal communication skills, decision making in small groups, conflict, what it means, and how it can be managed, the need for integrity, and the importance of an ethical approach to living and leading, and the importance of continuous learning. The process of assuming a leadership role entails learning, experiencing, and continuous growth in skill building. Including discussion exercises to reinforce learning, the book provides a foundation that can help teens navigate their academic career and eventual career path.

Professor Richard K Chang: A Lifelong Teacher And Friend Ali Serpenguzel, Sunny Sung-wen Chang, Grace Metcalfe, Nicole Py Chang, Hui Cao, Natasha Pm Chang, Kevin Ph Chang, Kok Khoo Phua, Kevin Chang, 2025-05-27 This book is a memorial for Professor Richard K. Chang of Yale University, with contributions from students, colleagues, friends, and family. The book covers the academic and personal interactions between a professor and his students and colleagues, in addition to observations by friends and family.

Developing Outcomes-Based Assessment for Learner-Centered Education Amy Driscoll, Swarup Wood, 2023-07-03 The authors, a once skeptical chemistry professor and a director of assessment sensitive to the concerns of her teacher colleagues, use a personal voice to describe the basics of outcomes-based assessment. The purpose of the book is to empower faculty to develop and maintain ownership of assessment by articulating the learning outcomes and evidence of learning that are appropriate for their courses and programs. The authors offer readers a guide to the not-always-tidy process of articulating expectations defining criteria and standards and aligning course content consistently with desired outcomes The wealth of examples and stories including accounts of successes and false starts provide a realistic and honest guide to what is involved in the institutionalization of assessment

The Red Room Tom Guzik, 2017-02-09 High school baseball isn't just all fun and games From selecting team members and organizing practices to all the drama of game day both on and off the field having success in high school sports takes commitment preparation and hard work And for the student athletes to have success it takes a dedicated coach to lead them forward In The Red Room author and coach Tom Guzik provides a behind the scenes look at his thirty one year career coaching high school baseball and he shows how his inspirational job of coaching has evolved over the years Focusing on his time as the coach for the Pottsville Area High School JV baseball team and chronicling the journey along the way Coach Guzik takes you into the coaching room and through practices travels and games so you can see what it takes to help student athletes both grow and mature on the field in the classroom and in life High school sports is as much about winning the game as it is about winning at life and being successful with the tools learned Coach Guzik's chronicle of six hundred games three hundred bus trips and more than twelve hundred practice sessions will help student athletes coaches and sports fans recognize all the dedication and hard work that go into hitting a home run
