GENDER ISSUES
AMITA SAXENA,2019-08-21 Gender inequality and discrimination not only in India all over world is a multifaceted issue that has been related to both men and women Some people think gender equality indices place men at a disadvantage when India s population is surveyed women are found to be at disadvantage in several ways These trends are disturbing as a natural prediction would be that with growth comes education and prosperity the dowry system involving a cash or in kind payment from the bride s family to the grooms at the time of marriage is another institution that disempowered women It reinforces the inferior status of Indian women and puts them at risk of violence in their marital households The normalization of intra household violence is a huge detriment to the welfare of women Crimes against women have doubled Gender inequality extends across various facets of society Political participation is a key factor to rectify this situation Gender bias extends to electoral politics and their representative also The book deals with Population Stabilizing Measure Juvenile Delinquency Gender Based Violence Women Fish Retailers Gender Inequality Geriatric Issues in Women and their Management in India Women s Attitude And The Environment The Journey of Indian Women across ages Gender Discrimination in the Workplace Violence Against Women dowry system Women s Role in Developing Technology Increasing Productivity Improving Lives

Sustainable Human Resource Management Ina Ehnert,2009-07-07 Predictions are that sustainability becomes the next big topic for Human Resource Management after internationalization and globalization This book gives new answers to these questions How can HRM contribute to attracting developing and retaining highly qualified human resources over time How can a paradox perspective contribute to understanding and coping with paradoxical tensions How can sustainability be used as a deliberate strategy for HRM The conceptual part of the book looks at the notion of sustainability opens it up for Strategic HRM and identifies blind spots in Strategic HRM theory Paradox theory is introduced as an analytical framework for Sustainable HRM Initial suggestions are made for sustainability strategies and for coping with paradoxes and tensions The exploratory part examines how 50 European Multinationals communicate their understanding of sustainability and HRM and which HR issues and practices they are linking to the topic

Gender-Based Violence and Layered Disasters Nahid Rezwana, Rachel Pain, 2022-12-30 This book investigates the widespread and persistent relationship between disasters and gender based violence drawing on new research with victim survivors to show how the two forms of harm constitute layered disasters in particular places intensifying and reproducing one another The evidence is now overwhelming that disasters and gender based violence are closely connected not just in moments of crisis but in the years that follow as the social economic and environmental impacts of disasters play out This book addresses two key gaps in research First it examines what causes the relationship between disasters and gender based violence to be so widespread and so enduring Second it highlights victim survivors own accounts of gender based violence and disasters It does so by presenting findings from original research on cyclones and flooding in Bangladesh and the UK and a review of global evidence on the Covid 19 pandemic Drawing on feminist theories it conceptualises the coincidence of gender based violence disasters and other aggravating factors in particular places as layered disasters Taking an intersectional approach that emphasises the connections between culture place patriarchy racism poverty settler colonialism environmental degradation and climate change the authors show the significance of gender based violence in creating vulnerability to future disasters Forefronting victim survivors experiences and understandings the book explores the important role of trauma and how those affected go about the process of survival and recovery Understanding disasters as layered casts light on why tackling gender based violence must be a key priority in disaster planning management and recovery The book concludes by exploring critiques of existing formal responses which often ignore or underplay gender based violence The book will be of interest to all those interested in understanding the causes and impacts of disasters as well as scholars and researchers of gender and gender based violence

Gender-based Violence Geraldine Terry, Joanna Hoare, 2007 This book brings together some of the most interesting and innovative work being done to tackle gender based violence in various sectors world regions and socio political contexts It will be useful to development and humanitarian practitioners policy makers and academics including gender specialists

The Gender Based Violence Indicators Study Mercy Machisa, Roos van Dorp, 2012 Over two thirds of women in Botswana 67% have experienced some form of gender violence in their lifetime including partner and non partner violence A smaller but still high proportion of men admit to perpetrating violence against women Inspired by the Commonwealth Plan of Action on Gender and Development 2005 2015 and Southern African Development Community SADC Protocol on Gender and Development target of halving GBV by 2015 this research project provides the first comprehensive and comparative baseline assessment of the extent effects and response to GBV in Botswana A representative sample of 639 women and 590 men across Botswana completed questionnaires in their preferred local language on behaviour and experiences related to GBV Researchers asked women about their experience of violence perpetrated by men while men were asked about their perpetration of violence against women

 This practical manual addresses the problems inherent in current strategies especially lack of collaboration between different agencies and individuals working in the area of gender based violence The book encourages development and implementation of policies programmes and plans

Religion and Gender-Based Violence Brenda Bartelink, Chia Longman, Tamsin Bradley, 2022-09-15
 This book takes religion as an entry point for a deeper exploration into why practices of gender based violence continue and what possible actions might help to contribute to their eradication International donors are committed to reducing and ending gender related harm particularly violence against women but clear answers as to why harmful practices persist are often slow to emerge Theological research struggles to find strong links yet religion is often referred to by local people as the reason for practices such as female cutting male circumcision early and forced marriage nutritional taboos and birth practices mandatory un veiling harmful spiritual practices polygamy gender unequal marital and inheritance rights and so called honour crimes This book presents empirical cases of religious non religious and secular actors including local and international governmental and non governmental agencies in the fields of development health and equality policies Tracing their different understandings of how religion is entangled with gender based violence both contextually as well as historically the book sheds light on helpful and unhelpful as well as erroneous and harmful understandings of such practices in local and global perspectives Centralising the perspectives of women themselves this book will be an important read for development practitioners and policy makers as well as for researchers across religious studies gender studies and global development

Women, Organizations and Vulnerability Hugo Gaggiotti, Isis Arlene Díaz-Carrión, 2025-03-04
 Why are women despite being resilient adaptable and persistent often constructed and perceived as weak and vulnerable Women s vulnerability is not a neutral concept but is organizationally defined and understood Organizations are discursive spaces where women s vulnerability is constructed and reproduced as a communicative act and event We often represent vulnerability at individual or organizational levels but not both Women s vulnerability reminds us of the pervasive interconnectedness of personal and organizational life events Experiencing women s organizational vulnerability is common However is women s vulnerability publicly represented defined felt and acted upon in the same way everywhere This book is focused on comparing women s organizational vulnerability practices making a significant contribution to reflection theory methods and cross disciplinary expertise The process of making sense of vulnerability is extremely diverse and intersectionally constructed through gender culture and organizational discourses which demands complex innovative and non Eurocentric methodological paradigms and approaches This book satisfies these demands by integrating contributions from a diverse range of disciplines academic traditions and cases and provides an understanding of women s vulnerability as a global phenomenon that comprises both cultural and organizational contexts By examining how publicly and organizationally women develop particular and creative strategies to navigate vulnerability the book significantly contributes towards identifying archetypical practices for negotiating vulnerability in different contexts

National Strategy Towards Ending Gender Based Violence in Botswana 2016-2020 Botswana. Ministry of Labour and Home Affairs. Gender Affairs Department, 2016 Protection from gender-based violence in food and nutrition security interventions Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-03-05 The purpose of this Guide is to equip FAO and its partners with information on Gender Based Violence GBV relevant to their work and provide practical guidance on how to design and deliver food security and nutrition programmes in ways that prevent and mitigate GBV and contribute to the protection of survivors and those at risk In view of the Organization s specific areas of competence in food security nutrition and agricultural livelihoods this Guide will focus on GBV issues in this context All staff should endeavour to understand the contents of this Guide and follow its recommendations to ensure FAO creates safe and sustainable livelihood opportunities that can truly build resilience The Guide is a living document that will continue to evolve as FAO accumulates experiences and lessons learned in an ever changing working environment Decolonising African University Knowledges, Volume 2 Amasa P. Ndofirepi, Felix Maringe, Simon Vurayai, Gloria Erima, 2022-10-14 This book explores the influence of neoliberal globalisation on African higher education considering the impact of the politics of neoliberal ideology on the nature and sources of knowledge in African universities Written by African scholars the book engages with debates around the commodification of knowledge socially just knowledge knowledge transformation collaboration and partnerships and indigenous knowledge systems It challenges the neoliberal approach to knowledge production and dissemination in African universities and contributes to debates around decolonising knowledge production in Africa The chapters draw on experiences from universities in different sub Saharan countries to show how the manifestation of neo colonialism through the pursuit of the hegemonic neoliberal philosophy is impacting on decolonising university knowledge in Africa Providing a unique critique of the impact of neoliberal higher education in Africa the book will be essential reading for researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the field of Sociology of Education decolonising education Inclusive Education and Education Policy Risks, Identity and Conflict Steven Ratuva, Hamdy A. Hassan, Radomir Compel, 2021-07-01 This volume explores the complex interrelation between risk identity and conflict and focuses specifically on ethnicity culture religion and gender as modes of identity that are often associated with conflict in the contemporary world It draws on theoretical perspectives as well as pays special attention to analysis of diverse case studies from Africa Middle East Europe East and Southeast Asia and Latin America Using various analytical tools and methodologies it provides unique narratives of local and regional social risk factors and security complexities The relationship between risk and security is multidimensional and perpetually changing and lends itself to multiple interpretations This publication provides a new ground for theoretical and policy debates to unlock innovative understanding of risk through analyses of identity as a significant factor in conflict in the world today At the same time it explores ways to address such conflicts in a more people centered empowering and sustainable way Handbook of Research on Discrimination, Gender Disparity, and Safety Risks in Journalism Jamil, Sadia,Çoban, Barış,Ataman, Bora,Appiah-Adjei, Gifty,2020-12-18 Today a variety of gender based threats and discrimination continue to characterize journalism Both male and female journalists are prone to online and offline threats casual stereotypes in their routine work and discrimination especially in terms of job opportunities promotion and pay scale Working in a safe and non discriminatory environment is the right of all journalists regardless of their gender The Handbook of Research on Discrimination Gender Disparity and Safety Risks in Journalism is a critical reference book that highlights equal rights in journalism to ensure the safety of women and men The book investigates the level and nature of threats both online and offline faced by journalists as well as gender discrimination in journalism Best practices and examples that can promote a safe working environment and gender equality in journalism are also presented Highlighting important themes such as online harassment sexism and gender based violence this book is ideal for journalists reporters media organizations professionals researchers academicians and students working or studying in the fields of journalism media and communications human rights and women s studies Gender-Based Violence and Femicide in South Africa

Tameshnie Deane,2024-06-27 This book presents new perspectives on gender based violence GBV in South Africa It argues that violence against women is a manifestation of unequal gender relations and harmful manifestations of hegemonic masculinity which are governed by patriarchal beliefs institutions and systems It includes chapters on quantitative research that assess not only the levels and determinants of violence against women but also men s attitudes towards gender based violence perceptions of violence the legislative frameworks governing violence against women in South Africa and the current cases and jurisprudence relating to this scourge In spite of its focus on South Africa the book also provides insights for comparative scholars exploring the value of different constitutional articulations of human rights and how they support or fail to support efforts to combat violence against women By assessing recent incidents and responses to gender based violence the book provides a view of not only the societal but also jurisprudential opportunities and pitfalls in this area that may be applicable elsewhere Gender equality and central to this the right of women to live lives free of violence is a precondition for full democratic participation and is a universal goal Accordingly the South African experience contributes to a wider understanding of the possibilities and limitations of societal and legal reform in challenging the ubiquity of violence against women The book is aimed at researchers practitioners students professionals and advocates in the field of gender based violence Gender-based Violence and Public Health Keerty Nakray,2013 Gender based violence is a multi faceted public health problem with numerous consequences for an individual s physical and mental health and wellbeing This collection develops a comprehensive public health approach for working with gender based violence paying specific attention to international budgets policies and practice and drawing on a wide selection of empirical studies Divided into two parts the text looks at how public health budgets and policies can be used to influence a range of risk factors and outcomes and then outlines a theoretical and conceptual framework The second section draws on empirical studies to illustrate ways of managing the risks and impacts of and responses to the problem It concludes by summarising those risk factors that can be effectively addressed through appropriately budgeted public health programmes globally Highlighting ways of bolstering protective and resilience factors and identifying early interventions it demonstrates the importance of inter agency interventions through coordinated effort from a wide range of sectors including social services education religious organisations judiciary police media and business This inter disciplinary volume will interest students and researchers working on gender based violence gender budgeting and public health policy from a range of backgrounds including public health sociology social work public policy gender studies development studies and economics

Best Practices in Development Co-operation Toolkit to Support Implementation of the OECD DAC Recommendation on Ending Sexual Exploitation Abuse and Harassment OECD,2024-06-28 This Toolkit synthesises learning and examples gathered from Development Assistance Committee DAC members and partners including their work through international fora such as the OECD as well as additional research It aims to support DAC members and partners in deepening their work and accelerate progress on any number of topics contained within the DAC Recommendation s six pillars Progress in Sexual Exploitation Abuse and Harassment SEAH prevention and response can be very incremental and difficult to measure in part because it relies on addressing the many underlying factors that support the perpetuation of SEAH such as cultural and social norms as well as power dynamics This Toolkit aims to support progress by DAC members on both technical and political levels as well as support their coordination efforts with their partners to work towards long term sustainable change
