Inherit The Wind Answers:

Inherit the Wind Jerome Lawrence, Robert E. Lee, 2003-11-04 A classic work of American theatre based on the Scopes Monkey Trial of 1925 which pitted Clarence Darrow against William Jennings Bryan in defense of a schoolteacher accused of teaching the theory of evolution The accused was a slight frightened man who had deliberately broken the law His trial was a Roman circus The chief gladiators were two great legal giants of the century Like two bull elephants locked in mortal combat they bellowed and roared imprecations and abuse The spectators sat uneasily in the sweltering heat with murder in their hearts barely able to restrain themselves At stake was the freedom of every American One of the most moving and meaningful plays of our generation Praise for Inherit the Wind A tidal wave of a drama New York World Telegram And Sun Jerome Lawrence and Robert E Lee were classic Broadway scribes who knew how to crank out serious plays for thinking Americans Inherit the Wind is a perpetually prescient courtroom battle over the legality of teaching evolution We re still arguing this case all the way to the White House Chicago Tribune Powerful a crackling good courtroom play that provides two of the juiciest roles in American theater Copley News Service This historical drama deserves respect The Columbus Dispatch Answers to Your Kids' Questions Charles W. The Right Questions Phillip E. Johnson, 2009-09-20 An ECPA 2003 Gold Medallion Finalist Phillip E Johnson pries the lid off public debate about questions of ultimate concern questions often suppressed by our society s intellectual elite Moving far beyond matters of creation and evolution Johnson outlines the questions we all ought to be asking about the meaning of human history the limits of scientific inquiry religion and education in a pluralistic society truth liberty and moral choices and God and His Word Jesus Christ Johnson deftly demonstrates how the reigning naturalistic philosophy not only squelches public debate but also constrains us to ask the wrong questions Unless we start with the right questions Johnson argues our discussions will be framed by the assumptions of that very philosophy which must be challenged Johnson asserts that even the Christian church has much too often passively accepted this limiting frame of mind to the detriment of all But Christian faith and conviction instead ought to lead in opening up the search for truth and meaning through the kind of public education that teaches in controversy Then all of us will be prepared to engage in lively informed and civil debate about the questions that really matter Why is it always wrong to mix science and religion What is the ultimate premise the beginning point from which logic should proceed How can a college education prepare students to understand the ultimate purpose or meaning for which life should be lived and to choose rightly from among the available possibilities What is the appropriate understanding of religion in a pluralistic nation where substantial numbers of Christians agnostics Jews and Muslims all need to live together in peace How can democratic liberalism remain viable when severed from its Christian roots What is the most important event in human history Provocative personal persuasive and prophetic Johnson is certain to help us break free from our intellectual and spiritual captivity
