Formal Meetings of the Fraternity

At the annual or other important meeting of the Fraternity in Grand Council assembled the Grand Bailiffs shall be seated in the center of the platform occupying his desk. All Ex-Grand Bailiffs shall be seated immediately behind the Grand Bailiff, while on his right shall be seated the Grand Keeper of Records and Seal and on his left shall be seated the Vice Grand Bailiff and the Grand Keeper of Finances. The Grand Marshal shall occupy a seat near the Grand Bailiff and shall carry out his respective duties. The members shall be seated in the assembly hall, facing the Grand Bailiff, and shall listen attentively to and take a part in all questions that may arise and all his decisions.

There shall be observed no noise, no idle or private, and quietness shall prevail during all deliberations of the Grand Council. The Custodian of the Peace who shall be appointed by the Grand Bailiff at the beginning of the Council, shall be stationed at the door and shall admit only those persons who are members of the Fraternity and such other persons as have the permission of the Grand Council through the Grand Bailiff.

Formal Meetings of the Chapters

At the regular or special meetings of the Chapters the same dignity and quietness must be observed as in the meetings of the Grand Council. Seating arrangements shall, when possible, conform to the seating arrangement of the Grand Council—the Bailiff of the Chapter occupying the seat and desk in the center, all ex-Bailiffs seated behind him, while the Keeper of Records and Seal and the Keeper of Finances occupy seats at his right and left, respectively. The Keeper of the Peace shall be stationed at the door and shall admit only those persons who are members of the Fraternity, and such other persons as have the permission of the Chapter through the Bailiff. In all cases where persons other than those members of the Fraternity are permitted to enter meetings of the Fraternity, the robe containing the rights of Omega and other emblems shall be removed from sight.

Before You Pledge: Essential Information You Should Know About the Divine Nine Dr. Michael J. R. Winfield, Before You Pledge Essential Information You Should Know About the Divine Nine is an important read for all those considering joining a Black Greek Letter Organization or for anyone wanting to simply learn about the origin of this august body of black men and women The dawn of the twentieth century brought many challenges to young African American students seeking enrollment at all white college campuses Intense racial prejudice forced many black students to leave predominantly white universities And at the same time on Historically Black College campuses the desire for fellowship through shared social experiences led to the rise of Black Greek life starting with Cornell University in New York Alpha Phi Alpha the first black fraternity formed at a predominantly white university in 1906 would point the way for similar organizations to develop Between 1906 and 1922 eight Black Greek Letter Organizations were formed with a ninth in 1963 Known collectively as the Divine Nine these five fraternities and four sororities would go on to shape the course of Black America Together these young black men and women would face down racial prejudice take the lead in the fight for social justice in the end reshape the American cultural landscape Finally no other group of people can claim to have the sheer degree of accomplishments in all areas of human activity in the United States and in many other parts of the world compared to the Divine Nine Jet, 1988-05-16 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Going Greek Marianne Rachel Sanua, 2003 Going Greek offers an unprecedented look at the relationship between American Jewish students and fraternity life during its heyday in the first half of the twentieth century More than secret social clubs fraternities and sororities profoundly shaped the lives of members long after they left college often dictating choices in marriage as well as business alliances Widely viewed as a key to success membership in these self governing sectarian organizations was desirable but not easily accessible especially to non Protestants and nonwhites In Going Greek Marianne Sanua examines the founding of Jewish fraternities in light of such topics as antisemitism the unique challenges faced by Jewish students on campuses across the United States responses to World War II and questions pertaining to assimilation and or identity reinforcement The book covers a vast array of information from the many famous people who belonged to Jewish fraternities to the songs they sang Snobbery within the fraternities what behavior constituted the proper image for an American Jew comes up for discussion but so does the increasing awareness of Jewish students toward issues of social justice For several generations of leaders in the national Jewish community fraternities were central to their lives Going Greek thus provides historians and biographers with a window onto an important aspect of American Jewish cultural experience Black Greek 101 Walter M. Kimbrough, 2003 When members of Black fraternal organizations and non members alike finish Black Greek 101 they will have a foundation for understanding some of the most interesting organizations that have influenced not only campus culture but American culture as a whole Jacket Key Themes in the Ethnography of Education Sara Delamont, 2013-12-05 This is a

beautifully written book that takes the reader to the heart of ethnography as experience Readers can walk in the shoes of ethnographers who have travelled before them and learn as they learned Sara Delamont is an undisputed expert in both ethnography and education and here illustrates she is also a tour de force in writing style All the important ingredients for a recipe to make a good quality ethnography are here and they are served up with relish Karen O Reilly Loughborough University This is a powerful richly nuanced evocative work a stunning and brilliantly innovative intervention It provides ground zero the starting place for the next generation of social scholars of education A major accomplishment Norman K Denzin University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign The ethnography of education has been conducted by sociologists and anthropologists largely in self contained and self referential ways This book celebrates the continuities and the strengths of ethnographic research on education in formal and non formal settings deliberately transgressing the sociology anthropology divide Education is broadly defined to cover many settings other than schools in many countries for many age groups The book is structured thematically including chapters on movement and mobilities memorials and memories time and timescapes bodies and performativities multi sensory research and narratives Strategies for designing innovative ethnographic projects and for fighting familiarity are provided
