Tar Heels in Gray John B. Cameron,2021-09-22 The 30th North Carolina Infantry was involved in most of the major battles in Virginia from the Seven Days through the surrender at Appomattox and saw some of the bloodiest fighting of the American Civil War Two thirds of these men volunteered early the others were enlisted at the point of a bayonet Their casualty rate was high the rate of death from disease was higher and the desertion and AWOL rate was higher still What was the war actually like for these men What was their economic status To what extent were they involved in the institution of slavery What were their lives like in the Army What did they believe they were fighting for and did those views change over time This book answers those questions and depicts Civil War soldiers as they were rather than as appendages to famous generals or symbols of myth It focuses on the realities of the men themselves not their battles In addition to the author s personal collection of letters and other contemporary records it draws upon newly discovered letters diaries memoirs census records and published works Reports of Cases Determined in the Appeal and Chancery Divisions and Selected Cases in the King's Bench and at Chambers of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick New Brunswick. Thomas Gray's Pindaric Odes Frederick M. Keener, 2012-10-25 More radically than had any contemporary English author's work Thomas Gray's two Pindaric odes of 1757 effectively challenged readers' powers of comprehension posing problems of reference as well as distinctly Pindaric problems of coherence Solving those problems calls for knowledge not widely had then now or in between Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States United States. pandemic Instead contributors from around the world were determined to contribute to this collection because of their inspiration and shared commitment with Greg s vision The love and admiration within the marine community for Greg is phenomenal With that said we would be remiss if we did not say a few words about Greg as a mentor and friend Greg had a knack for helping students realize their abilities and pursue their own independent contributions to the marine mammal community He shared in their successes and worked tirelessly to facilitate their aspirations Greg would involve students early career scientists and colleagues in projects introduce them to collaborators and promote them and their work Greg was a genuinely caring person When he asked you how are you doing he honestly wanted to know He was always there ready to listen and provide guidance If you were to ask Greg what was most important to him in life he would say God family and marine life and one could argue that he had a special fondness for manatees He believed in the beauty of nature and that God had a hand in all of it He was in pursuit of ensuring that we all share this earth responsibly and sustainably We miss Greg dearly but honor and celebrate him as we carry on in our pursuits
