MORE THAN A MEDAL

By Alice Amos

Medals for the 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Paris will feature scrap metal from the Tower taken during refurbishments and repairs.

The metal leftovers (from the Eiffel Tower) had been stored for years in a warehouse in a secret location but are now finally getting a new purpose. Thierry Reboul, creative director of Paris 2024, said: "It's the opportunity for the athletes to bring back a piece of Paris with them. The absolute symbol of Paris and France is the Eiffel Tower."

A French luxury jewellery firm based in Paris designed the medals and 5,084 of them will be produced by France's mint, the Monnaie de Paris. The scrap metal will make up the centre pieces of the gold, silver and bronze medals, with hexagon-shaped pieces forged out of the scrap iron. Hexagons are said to represent France, with the country sometimes referred to as "L'Hexagone" because of its shape.

Six small clasps that hold the iron pieces in the medals are a nod at the 2.5 million rivets that

Focus on Writing Composition Ray Barker, Louis Fidge, 1999 The supporting Teacher Resource Books offer practical advice on organising and using the course and provide a comprehensive range of further teaching ideas that cover all links with the NLS

The Wedding Report Hans-Jürg Suter, 1993-09-01 Traditional text types or genres are complex linguistic sociocultural and cognitive phenomena that can only be analysed in flexible interdisciplinary frameworks fusing structural and process oriented approaches and combining quantitative description with qualitative interpretation and evaluation The theoretical and methodological implications of the prototypical text type concept which is developed in this book are explored in an exhaustive case study of a representative ie prototypical genre the wedding report a conventional type of news report published in local English newspapers The distinctive contextual and textual features situational context text production processes function thematic structure and form on the macro and microlevel are analysed synchronically and diachronically The linguistic findings are integrated into a comprehensive view of the interplay between the genre as a linguistic frame and its sociocultural context The study puts special emphasis on addressing the methodological problems arising from the inherent fuzziness of traditional text types and can thus serve as a detailed working model of genre analysis designed to be adapted to the specific requirements of similar studies

Workbook for News Reporting and Writing Brian S. Brooks, Missouri Group, George Kennedy, Daryl R. Moen, Don Ranly, 2010-11-10 It s a tumultuous time in journalism as media forms evolve and new models emerge There are few clear answers but no one is more prepared than The Missouri Group to tackle these issues head on and to teach students the core enduring journalism skills they need to succeed whether they write for the local paper a professional blog cable news or even work in public relations

Exploring the Lexis-Grammar Interface Ute Römer, Rainer Schulze, 2009-03-11 This volume showcases studies that recognize and provide evidence for the inseparability of lexis and grammar The contributors explore in what ways these two areas often treated separately in linguistic theory and description form an organic whole The papers in Section I Setting the Scene introduce some of the key methodological approaches and theoretical positions at the lexis grammar interface while Section II Considering the Particulars contains papers that report on case studies and show concrete applications of the central methods and theories Exploring the Lexis Grammar Interface is a stimulating collection of papers for anyone who wishes to learn more about and get fresh state of the art perspectives on language patterning

News in a Digital Age Kavanagh, Marcellino, Jonathan S. Blake, Smith, Davenport, Tebeka, 2019-05-14 This report presents a quantitative assessment of how the presentation of news has changed over the past 30 years and how it varies across platforms Over time and as society moved from old to new media news content has generally shifted from more objective event and context based reporting to reporting that is more subjective relies more heavily on argumentation and advocacy and includes more emotional appeals

International News Reporting John Owen, Heather Purdey, 2008-12-31 A collection of essays by top international correspondants in print

broadcasting and photojournalism International News Reporting offers an introduction to journalism written by the people who have made the profession what it is today Contributors identify the major areas of professional practice which students and young journalists need to know in order to work safely in and understand fully the field of international news gathering Looks at events from conflicts to humanitarian disasters Covers crucial topics such as how to report stories about the developing world how to avoid stereotyping the uses and abuses of blogging and risk assessment for journalists in conflict zones

Professional News Reporting Bruce Garrison,2013-11-05 Because reporting is changing this volume offers readers a thorough introduction to the rapidly evolving world of gathering information for local news organizations This easy to read text is filled with contemporary examples and solid advice for the beginning reporting student Designed for students with a foundation in news writing it provides chapters on such basics as news research interviewing and observation skills It further offers a chapter on the use of personal computers as research and reporting tools Readers will find useful tips and examples written by award winning professional journalists that reflect the numerous changes in the art and science of information gathering in the past decade

The Oxford Handbook of Entertainment Theory Peter Vorderer,Christoph Klimmt,2021 This Handbook provides an overview of psychology based research on media entertainment that investigates how media users are drawn into and affected by entertaining media experiences The 41 chapters introduce field defining and emerging theories and demonstrate their application to old and new media and a wide range of media contents

Tell Our Story Julie Reid,Dale T. McKinley,2020-05-02 Focusing on three South African communities the authors dismiss the idea that some groups are voiceless arguing that they are being deliberately ignored by dominant news media The dominant news media are often accused of reflecting an elite bias privileging and foregrounding the interests of a small segment of society while ignoring the narratives of the majority The authors of Tell Our Story investigate this problem and offer a hands on demonstration of listening journalism and research in practice In the process they dismiss the idea that some groups are voiceless arguing that what is often described in such terms is mostly a matter of those groups being deliberately ignored Focusing their attention on three very different South African communities they delve into the life and struggle narratives of each exposing the divide between the stories told by the people who actually live in the communities and the way in which those stories have been understood and shaped by the media The three communities are those living in the Glebelands hostel complex in Durban where over 100 residents have been killed in politically motivated violence in the past few years the Xolobeni community on the Wild Coast which has been resisting the building of a new toll road and a dune mining venture and Thembelihle a settlement south west of Johannesburg that has been resisting removal for many years The book concludes with a set of practical guidelines for journalists on the practice of listening journalism

The Invention of Journalism J. Chalaby,1998-06-10 This book argues that journalism is a more recent invention than most authors have acknowledged so far The profession of the journalist and the journalistic discourse are the products of the emergence during the second half of the 19th century of a specialized field of discursive production the journalistic field This book analyses the emergence of journalism and examines the development of discursive norms practices and strategies that are characteristic of this discourse

The Discourse of Broadcast News Martin Montgomery, 2007-11-01 In this timely and important study Martin Montgomery unpicks the inside workings of what must still be considered the dominant news medium broadcast news Drawing principally on linguistics but multidisciplinary in its scope The Discourse of Broadcast News demonstrates that news programmes are as much about showing as telling as much about ordinary bystanders as about experts and as much about personal testimony as calling politicians to account Using close analysis of the discourse of television and radio news the book reveals how important conventions for presenting news are changing with significant consequences for the ways audiences understand its truthfulness Fully illustrated with examples and including detailed examination of the high profile case of ex BBC journalist Andrew Gilligan The Discourse of Broadcast News provides a comprehensive study which will challenge our current assumptions about the news The Discourse of Broadcast News will be a key resource for anyone researching the news whether they be students of language and linguistics media studies or communication studies

International News in the Digital Age Judith Clarke, Michael Bromley, 2012-01-25 The new research presented in this volume suggests that general perceptions cultural psychological geographical allied to the customs and values of journalism and underpinned by the uses of technology significantly shape international news This gives rise to a blend of the old and the new traditions of cultural centredness and innovative practices anchorages of place and the rootlessness of globalization Technology per se has not swept all before it On the other hand its uses have altered the means and methods of international news sourcing construction and dissemination Consequently the uptake of technology has contributed to fundamental changes in style and form and has greatly facilitated cross cultural exchanges The category international news is now more of a hybrid as recognized by the BBC and others The chapters in this book demonstrate that this hybridity is unevenly distributed across geo political domains and often across time Nevertheless as the contributors to this volume show the concept of international news relies on tightly interwoven elements of orthodox journalism social media civic expression and public assembly
