Active Ageing and Demographic Change Siniša Zrinščak,Susan Lawrence,2017-10-02

Although demographic change has been a widely discussed topic for decades its scope social impact and related policy responses leave us with many unresolved social issues Demographic change is a reality for all European societies but the ways in which it is taking place differ from country to country Active ageing both as a concept and policy response to the demographic ageing of populations has been widely debated researched and utilised informing both policy and practice and providing a common narrative framework to ageing However there continues to be a lack of clarity around the precise meaning of active ageing This book explores the way in which social work is critically engaging with the theme of active ageing in light of or maybe as a reaction to the policy responses witnessed within the context of large scale and rapid demographic change This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of Social Work

National Forest Inventories Erkki Tomppo, Thomas Gschwantner, Mark Lawrence, Ronald E. McRoberts, 2009-12-02 Forest inventories throughout the world have evolved gradually over time The content as well as the concepts and definitions employed are constantly adapted to the users needs Advanced inventory systems have been established in many countries within Europe as well as outside Europe as a result of development work spanning several decades in some cases more than 100 years With continuously increasing international agreements and commitments the need for information has also grown drastically and reporting requests have become more frequent and the content of the reports wider Some of the agreements made at the international level have direct impacts on national economies and international decisions e g the Kyoto Protocol Thus it is of utmost importance that the forest information supplied is collected and analysed using sound scientific principles and that the information from different countries is comparable European National Forest Inventory NFI teams gathered in Vienna in 2003 to discuss the new challenges and the measures needed to get data users to take full advantage of existing NFIs As a result the European National Forest Inventory Network ENFIN a network of NFIs was established The ENFIN members decided to apply for funding for meetings and collaborative activities COST European Cooperation in Science and Technology provided the necessary financial means for the realization of the program
