Orfebreria catalana medieval--Barcelona 1300-1500: Argenters i documents Núria de Dalmases Balañá,1992 New World Literacy Carlos Alberto González Sánchez,2011-04-07 This book on the role of written and iconographic communication in the Atlantic World combines a broad outlook geographically and chronologically with the precise treatment of specific evidence extracted from the sources The author argues that diatribes against chivalric fiction and the Index of Prohibited Books did not prevent proscribed literature from circulating freely on both sides of the Atlantic On the contrary he notes such prohibitions may have increased the lure of certain books A description of the process of registering and inspecting ships in Seville and upon reaching their destinations highlights opportunities for contraband smuggling fraud and the corruption of officials entrusted with regulating the trade Within the prominent spiritual genre the author documents a shift from Erasmian to Tridentine thinking The registers analyzed also suggest the growing popularity of literary works by Cervantes Mateo Alem n and Lope de Vega It opens a fascinating window onto the book trade in the Americas Different forms of participation in this culture included the use of books as fetishes and the possession of printed devotional images The analysis of books as well as printed images supports larger contentions about their role as agents of evangelization and westernization This book certainly opens up new worlds on the impact of books and images in the Atlantic World
