Finding Eden English Edition:

Finding Eden Robin Hanbury-Tenison, 2017-09-30 Sometimes it feels as though the whole planet has been so polluted and ravaged that there are no Edens left but they are there to be found by those who step off the beaten track So it was with mine Fifty years ago the interior of Borneo was a pristine virgin rainforest inhabited by uncontacted indigenous tribes and naive virtually tame wildlife It was into this Garden of Eden that Robin Hanbury Tenison led one of the largest ever Royal Geographical Society expeditions an extraordinary undertaking which triggered the global rainforest movement and illuminated for the first time how vital rainforests are to our planet For 15 months Hanbury Tenison and a team of some of the greatest scientists in the world immersed themselves in a place and a way of life that is on the cusp of extinction Much of what was once a wildlife paradise is now a monocultural desert devastated by logging and the forced settlement of nomadic tribes where traditional ways of life and unimaginably rich and diverse species are slowly being driven to extinction This is a story for our time one that reminds us of the fragility of our planet and of the urgent need to preserve the last untamed places of the world     Seeking Eden Staci L. Catron, Mary Ann Eaddy, 2018-04-15 Seeking Eden promotes an awareness of and appreciation for Georgia's rich garden heritage Updated and expanded here are the stories of nearly thirty designed landscapes first identified in the early twentieth century publication Garden History of Georgia 1733 1933 Seeking Eden records each garden's evolution and history as well as each garden's current early twenty first century appearance as beautifully documented in photographs Dating from the mid eighteenth to the early twentieth centuries these publicly and privately owned gardens include nineteenth century parterres Colonial Revival gardens Country Place era landscapes rock gardens historic town squares college campuses and an urban conservation garden Seeking Eden explores the significant impact of the women who envisioned and nurtured many of these special places the role of professional designers including J literature has interacted with architectural edifices and the development of landscape as a national style from the Middle Ages to the 19th Century Analyzing texts in relation to cultural artefacts each chapter demonstrates the self conscious production of English consciousness as its most enduring history     The Global Refuge Owen Stanwood,2020 The Global Refuge is the first global history of the Huguenots Protestant refugees from France who scattered around the world in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Inspired by visions of Eden these religious migrants were forced to navigate a world of empires forming colonies in North America the Caribbean and even South Africa and the Indian Ocean     Pirotechnia Vannoccio Biringucci,1990-01-01 The pirotechnia     Documents on German Foreign Policy, 1918-1945, from the Archives of the German Foreign Ministry Germany.
