A Critical and Historical Review of Fox's Book of Martyrs, Shewing the Inaccuracies, Falsehoods, and Misrepresentations in that Work of Deception William Eusebius Andrews, 1826

Pierson v. Post, The Hunt for the Fox Angela Fernandez, 2018-09-27 The 1805 New York foxhunting case Pierson v Post has long been used in American property law classrooms to introduce law students to the concept of first possession by asking how one establishes possession of a wild animal In this book Angela Fernandez retells the history of the famous fox case from its origins as a squabble between two wealthy young men on the South Fork of Long Island through its appeal to the New York Supreme Court and entry into legal treatises law school casebooks and law journal articles where it still occupies a central place Fernandez argues that the dissent is best understood as an example of legal solemn foolery Yet it has been treated by legal professionals the lawyers of its day and subsequent legal academics in such a serious way demonstrating how the solemn and the silly can occupy two sides of the same coin in American legal history

Love and Women in Early Chinese Fiction Daniel Hsieh,2009-03-02 In traditional China upper class literati were inevitably strongly influenced by Confucian doctrine and rarely touched upon such topics as love and women in their writings. It was not until the mid Tang a generation or two after the An Lushan rebellion that literary circles began to engage in overt discussion of the issues of love and women through the use of the newly emerging genres of zhiguai and chuanqi fiction. The debate was carried out with an unprecedented enthusiasm since the topics were considered to be the key to understanding the crisis in Chinese civilization. This book examines the repertoire of chuanqi and zhiguai written during the Six Dynasties and Tang periods and analyzes the key themes, topics and approaches found in these tales which range from expressions of male fantasy, sympathy, fear and anxiety to philosophical debate on the place of the feminine in patriarchal Chinese society. Many of these stories reflect tensions between masculine and feminine aspects of civilization as seen for example in the conflict of male aspiration and female desire as well as the ultimate longing for reconciliation of these divisions. These stories form a crucial chapter in the history of love in China and would provide much of the foundation for further explorations during the late imperial period as seen in seminal works such as The Peony Pavilion and Dream of the Red Chamber.
