Earth? Alaine M. Low, Soraya Tremayne, 2001 These 13 workshop based papers critique ecofeminist assumptions about traditional societies viewing women as closer to nature and more spiritual than men Following an overview by Low history Open U and Tremayne social and cultural anthropology U of Oxford the first contribution frames the debate over gender politics and environmentalism Next case studies illustrate sacred landscape not intrinsically ecologically oriented in such societies past and present Part III treats nature and gender in several major world religions The final paper discusses contemporary paganism's quest for wholeness The cover title reads Women as sacred custodians of the earth Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Songs of Symerid Three Marise Morland, 2021-07-06 How did Laura a music student from an English village find herself many light years from Earth alone on the stage of a meticulously copied Ancient Greek amphitheatre This is her story As she has the only singing voice on the planet Celestra she isn't worried about pleasing her audience What concerns her is the future of the people who randomly chose her technologically advanced yet disturbingly naïve with a dwindling population half forgotten history and an ambitious music hating First Citizen No one's asked Laura to do anything other than sing No one expects her to challenge Celestra's corrupt leadership But she's going to

A Dictionary of Modern Music and Musicians Arthur Eaglefield Hull, 1924 Women as Sacred Custodians of the Earth? Alaine Low, Soraya Tremayne, 2001-12-01 Literature on women development and environment is abundant The relationship between women and ecology has been analyzed by various disciplines by specialists from the North as well as the South This book offers a new perspective specifically to challenge the assumption that women have a special affinity with the Earth and therefore a historic mission for the care of the environment The book explores spiritual religious and philosophical beliefs concerning women and ecology and whether women are truly sacred custodians of the Earth This concept has evolved from ideas developed by eco feminists Whether and how different belief systems can be put to use to create an awareness to protect preserve and improve ecological conditions is discussed The collection of papers demonstrates the complexity of the issues and the variations and vulnerability of the assumed relationship between women and the environment in different cultural and political contexts The book challenges policy solutions which are devised to be on a global scale and to create unrealistic global aspirations and the value of targeting women in a particular attempt to achieve environmentally sustainable development Uncle Sam is Cool David M. Herman,2022-04-15 What the people want is something exciting The book I wrote is about young men and women who are struggling in California Warren Lear is an associate professor and he likes that Warren s girlfriend is Jennifer Gentry She is very pretty but she is often high strung and that can lead to fireworks At times Warren gets moody and that can irritate Jennifer She can give him fits at times They have other smart people in their orbit Sometimes Warren and Jenni wonder if they can make ends meet However with Jimmy Cooper Warren s best friend and other people chipping in everything will hold with glue And in the end many actors will realize that it was an excellent effort Goodbye, Dr Banda Alexander Chula,2023-05-04 You may never have been may never go may never even have heard of the place but Malawi will repay your attention It is one of the smallest poorest countries in Africa often overlooked but its relationship with us in the West has been extraordinary How to engage with cultures profoundly unlike our own We travel the world compulsively wanting to reach out but seldom feeling sure of how to do so A small African country presents us with a near perfect case study From David Livingstone and the early missionaries through British colonialists to today s tourists aid workers and even Madonna Malawi has experienced the whole gamut of Westerners all trying to connect This has made for an extraordinary meeting of worlds between one of the continent s most fascinating indigenous cultures and the best and worst of our own Unexpected and exhilarating by turns edifying and uncomfortable it is a story with urgent lessons for our vexed age of identity crisis and multi cultural faltering Here tribal ritual collides with Ancient Greek theatre roving classicists with ancestral spirits poets and pop stars with missionary explorers hippies and kleptocrats with long suffering peasants a tumultuous masquerade around the enigmatic Dr Banda
