

Discours du Président Paul Doumer à la rentrée de 1920. À ses côtés le Premier Secrétaire de la Conférence, le président du Comité National des Avocats, grand maître des avocats, et le Secrétaire de l'Ordre (2017) (cliché : Archives des Avocats de Paris)

UNE TRADITION DE DISCOURS

La cérémonie solennelle de Rentrée est marquée chaque année par les discours prononcés, relevant eux aussi d'une tradition ancienne.

Les prières de parole pour les auditeurs de Rentrée du Parlement de Paris appartenaient de façon véritablement régulière à compter du XVI^e siècle. Elles sont alors liées par et pour la magistrature : seuls le Premier Président du Parlement et l'Avocat du Roi s'expriment, et uniquement devant l'Assemblée des magistrats réunie dans le Grand Chambre du Palais. D'année en année, ces discours qui prennent plus initialement de la remontrance, prennent la forme de véritables démonstrations non seulement de connaissances juridiques, mais aussi d'éloquence.

Après la période révolutionnaire, la tradition de la Rentrée solennelle reprend, et, après elle, celle des prières de parole à l'égard des discours de Rentrée. L'audience de Rentrée concerne désormais tous les acteurs de la vie judiciaire et non plus seulement les magistrats : le bâtonnier est le premier invité à s'exprimer pour aborder diverses questions de droit et évoquer la dévolution des personnalités éminentes dans l'année. Le propos peut prendre facilement des accents politiques : du bâtonnier Jules Grévy (futur Président de la République) qui vient dans son discours de la rentrée 1898 l'Union sociale des avocats, à Olivier Coust en 2021, rappelant le soutien apporté par le Barreau de Paris aux avocats ghéens.

À compter des années 1800, deux avocats secrétaires du concours d'éloquence de la Conférence sont également invités à prendre la parole : le Premier Secrétaire a en charge l'éloge d'un avocat, tandis que le Deuxième Secrétaire revient sur le récit d'un procès.

D'une durée de trente minutes environ, le propos peut prendre des formes très diverses. Parmi les éloges, si certains Secrétaires présentent un récit de vie sous forme d'hommage, d'autres préfèrent adopter un ton plus ironique comme Stephen Hacquart en 1948 pour évoquer le bâtonnier Albert Sallé : « Je quaragénisme » et lui « a passé son temps à composer son propre éloge ». Il en va de même pour les Deuxièmes Secrétaires : l'histoire d'entre eux, ont évoqué de grands grands historiens (du procès de Socrate à celui de Raffaele Steinsky), mais d'autres choix ont pu être proposés pour imaginer les procès - fictifs - de l'Occident (1990) ou celui des juges d'instruction (1993).

Les orateurs se répondent et dialoguent à travers les décennies : ainsi par exemple Raymond Poincaré - futur Président de la République lui aussi - fit-il en 1890 l'éloge de Dufaure, avant d'avoir droit à son tour à son propre éloge en 1926 par Lucienne Schœd, première femme à porter le titre de Premier Secrétaire de Conférence.

Le discours de Rentrée est donc devenu au fil des ans un exercice incontournable, et l'occasion de découvrir les talents oratoires de nombreux jeunes avocats, dont certaines futures hautes personnalités : citons entre autres les politiciens René Viviani (1889), Joseph Paul-Boncour (1888), Paul Reynaud (1910) et Edgar Faure (1929), les académiciens Lyon Bérard (1901), Jean-Denis Bédon (1905) et Jean-Marc Vairel (1908), et plus récemment de grands noms du Barreau comme l'ancien bâtonnier Pierre Masse (1906), Albert Nèze (1945), ou l'actuel vice-bâtonnier de l'Ordre, Vincent Nèze (1995).

Discours prononcé à la rentrée de 1926 par la jeune avocate et Premier Secrétaire de Conférence Lucienne Schœd. Il est le résultat d'un concours de Rentrée des Secrétaires de l'Ordre d'une éducation d'« Orateur des Avocats de Paris ».
