grotesque challenges the spectator's sense of reality. It brings him or her up against their own assumptions about how the world works at its most extreme; it asks the spectator to re-evaluate his or her sense of the limits of the human. Performing Dark Arts is an exploration of the paradox of the conjuror, the actor who pretends to be a magician. It aims to illuminate the history of conjuring by examining it in the context of performance studies and to throw light on aspects of performance studies by testing them against the art of conjuring. The book examines not only the performances of individual magicians from Dedi to David Blaine but also the broader cultural contexts in which their performances were received and the meanings which they have attracted.

Everyday Peace? Philippa Williams, 2015-08-13 Winner of the 2016 Julian Minghi Distinguished Book Award of the Political Geography Specialty Group at the AAG. Providing important insights into political geography, the politics of peace and South Asian studies, this book explores everyday peace in northern India as it is experienced by the Hindu-Muslim community. Redefines the politics of peace as well as concepts of citizenship, agency, secular politics and democracy. Based on over 14 months of qualitative and archival research in the city of Varanasi in Uttar Pradesh, India.
