Of Memory and Literary Form Kyle Pivetti, 2015-10-08 This book opens with a crisis of recollection In the early modern period real political traumas like civil war and regicide exacerbated what were already perceived ruptures in myths of English descent William Camden and other scholars had revealed that the facts of history could not justify the Arthurian myths nor could history itself guarantee any moment of collective origin for the English people Yet poets and playwrights concerned with the status of the emerging nation state did not respond with new material evidence Instead they turned to the literary structures that through a range of what the author calls mnemonic effects could generate the experience of a collective past As Sir Philip Sidney recognized verse depends upon the repetitions of rhyme and meter consequently poetry far exceedeth prose in the knitting up of memory These poetic and linguistic forms expose national memory as a construction at potential odds with history for memory operates like language through a series of signifiers that acquire new meaning as one rearranges and rereads them Moving from the tragedy Gorboduc 1561 to Dryden s Absalom and Achitophel 1681 Pivetti shows how such knitting up of memory created the shared pasts that generate nationhood His work implies that memory emerges not from what actually occurred but from the forms that compose it Or to adapt the words of Paul Ricoeur we have nothing better than memory to signify that something has taken place The same is true even when that something is nationhood      Sample Booklet The Supreme Master Ching Hai,2017-12-01 Throughout the ages humankind has been visited by rare individuals whose sole purpose is the spiritual upliftment of humanity Jesus Christ was one of these visitors as were Shakyamuni Buddha and Mohammed These three are well known to us but there are many others whose names we do not know some taught publicly and were known by a few and others remained anonymous These individuals were called by different names at different times in different countries They have been referred to as Master Avatar Enlightened One Savior Messiah Divine Mother Messenger Guru Living Saint and the like They came to offer us what has been called Enlightenment Salvation Realization Liberation or Awakening The words used may be different but in essence they all mean the same thing Visitors from the same Divine Source with the same spiritual greatness moral purity and power to uplift humanity as the Holy Ones from the past are here with us today yet few know of their presence One of them is the Supreme Master Ching Hai Master Ching Hai is an unlikely candidate to be widely recognized as a Living Saint She is a woman and many Buddhists and others believe the myth that a woman cannot become a Buddha She is of Asian descent and many Western people expect that their Savior will look like them However those of us from all over the world and from many different religious backgrounds who have gotten to know Her and who follow Her teachings know who and what She is For you to come to know this will take a measure of openness of mind and sincerity of heart It will also take your time and attention but nothing else      ENGLISH SHORT STORIES B1-B2 Evelyn Storm,2025-07-18 THIS SERIES FEATURES COLLECTIONS OF SHORT STORIES SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS CRAFTED BY EVELYN STORM FROM BEGINNER TO ADVANCED LEVELS THESE BOOKS HELP STUDENTS OF ALL PROFICIENCIES ENHANCE THEIR LANGUAGE SKILLS READING VOCABULARY AND COMPREHENSION      A History of English Autobiography Adam Smyth,2016-04-04 A History of English Autobiography explores the genealogy of autobiographical writing in England from the medieval period to the digital era Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes wide ranging essays that illuminate the legacy of English autobiography Organized thematically these essays survey the multilayered writings of such diverse authors as Chaucer Bunyan Carlyle Newman Wilde and Woolf Written by a host of leading scholars this History is the definitive single volume collection on English autobiography and will serve as an invaluable reference for specialists and students alike      Reading Memory in Early Modern Literature Andrew Hiscock,2011-10-13 He who remembers or recollects thinks declared Francis Bacon drawing attention to the absolute centrality of the question of memory in early modern Britain s cultural life The vigorous debate surrounding the faculty had dated back to Plato at least However responding to the powerful influences of an ever expanding print culture humanist scholarship the veneration for the cultural achievements of antiquity and sweeping political upheaval and religious schism in Europe succeeding generations of authors from the reign of Henry VIII to that of James I engaged energetically with the spiritual political and erotic implications of remembering Treating the works of a host of different writers from the Earl of Surrey Katharine Parr and John Foxe to William Shakespeare Mary Sidney Ben Jonson and Francis Bacon this study explores how the question of memory was intimately linked to the politics of faith identity and intellectual renewal in Tudor and early Stuart Britain

The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation

Slav Gratchev, Margarita Marinova, 2022-10-06 Although Mikhail Bakhtin's study of the novel does not focus in any systematic way on the role that translation plays in the processes of novelistic creation and dissemination when he does broach the topic he grants translation a disproportionately significant role in the emergence and constitution of literature The contributors to this volume from the US Hong Kong Finland Japan Spain Italy Bangladesh and Belgium bring their own polyphonic experiences with the theory and practice of translation to the discussion of Bakhtin's ideas about this topic in order to illuminate their relevance to translation studies today Broadly stated the essays examine the art of translation as an exercise in a cultural re-accentuation a transference of the original text and its characters to the novel soil of a different language and culture which inevitably leads to the proliferation of multivalent meanings and to explore the various re-accentuation devices employed over the span of the last 100 years in translating modern texts from one language to another Through its contributors The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation brings together different cultural contexts and disciplines such as literature literary theory the visual arts pedagogy translation studies and philosophy to demonstrate the continued international relevance of Bakhtin's ideas to the study of creative practices broadly understood
