Borden, Frank Hayden Whitmore, New York State Library, 1906 "Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914" Temma Balducci, 2017-07-05 Focusing on images of or produced by well-to-do nineteenth-century European women this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification vis-à-vis the public. Attending to various iterations of the public as space sphere and discourse sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men. By contrast the essays collected in Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture 1789-1914 demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting. In examining the relationship between affluent women, femininity and the public the essays gathered here consider works by an array of artists that includes canonical ones such as Mary Cassatt and Francis Grant as well as understudied women artists including Louise Abbéma and Bronzia Koller. The essays also consider works in a range of media from fashion prints and paintings to private journals and architectural designs facilitating an analysis of femininity in public across the cultural production of the period. Various European centers including Madrid, Florence, Paris, Brittany, Berlin and London emerge as crucial sites of production for genteel femininity providing a long overdue rethinking of modern femininity in the public sphere.
