Live A Healthy Lifestyle Athon Barron, 2010-06-25 Recognized Women: Carolina Esser, 2025-01-29 Axel Honneth s theory of recognition comes from a theoretical paradigm attached to Western deliberative democracy Honneth does not interpret recognition from the perspective of gender equality and how a woman may be recognized in non democratic and non Western societies If one interprets the theory of recognition with a focus on the situation of women it is possible to identify that legal recognition plays a fundamental role It is relevant then to propose forms of struggling for the recognition of these women It is adopted the methodology of Critical Theory and recognition is illustrated from the perspectives of case studies for instance regarding women in China and Morocco In these countries there are different forms of disrespect Nevertheless despite restrictions imposed by government and culture both countries still have forms of struggling for recognition that should be perceived Several forms of struggling for recognition to turn recognition into a universal institute which can be applied in different contexts There are always forms of struggling for better conditions of women s recognition in every community through the support of law Love Life Oksana Lutsyshyna, 2024-07-09 Love Life follows Yora an immigrant to the United States from Ukraine as she becomes enmeshed with the seductive Sebastian The second novel by the award winning Ukrainian writer and poet Oksana Lutsyshyna Love Life is a fascinating story of self discovery amidst the complexities of adapting to a new life Love and Law in Europe Hanne Petersen, 2018-11-08 First published in 1998 this volume aims to draw attention to an ongoing shift in the perception of law which is now increasingly understood as a cultural and historical phenomenon As other such phenomena like music literature or art it is acknowledged that it is created in a specific environment on which it is dependent for its functioning and interpretation The historical aspects of love in a European and Nordic context are underlined as well as the modern understanding of love and law as incompatible and contrasting concepts

Developments within the European Union and especially the relation of the EU to so called third country nationals and immigrants demonstrate that the problematic concerning law and love is not only one of legal philosophy but also of legal and everyday reality The claim that love has been specifically European is discarded as Eurocentrist and the need for more particular emotions and a more pragmatic approach to romantic feelings for a reasonable love is discussed from legal feminist and philosophical perspectives Dandyism and Transcultural Modernity Hsiao-yen Peng,2015-01-28 This book views the Neo Sensation mode of writing as a traveling genre or style that originated in France moved on to Japan and then to China The author contends that modernity is possible only on the transcultural site transcultural in the sense of breaking the divide between past and present elite and popular national and regional male and female literary and non literary inside and outside To illustrate the concept of transcultural modernity three icons are highlighted on the transcultural site the dandy the flaneur and the translator Mere flaneurs and flaneurses simply float with the tide of heterogeneous information on the transcultural site whereas the dandy flaneur and the cultural translator propellers of modernity manage to bring about transformative creation Their performance marks the essence of transcultural modernity the self consciousness of working on the threshold always testing the limits of boundaries and tempted to go beyond them To develop the concept of dandyism the quintessence of transcultural modernity the Neo Sensation gender triad formed by the dandy the modern girl and the modern boy is laid out Writers discussed include Liu Na ou a Shanghai dandy par excellence from Taiwan Paul Morand who looked upon Coco Chanel the female dandy as his perfect other self and Yokomitsu Riichi who developed the theory of Neo Sensation from Kant s the thing in itself Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1967 As Good as It Gets Stephen M. Clark,2010-12-14 Of all the famous books ever written The Song of Songs has been designated as the finest ever produced or ever to be read on the subject of finding love developing relationships and experiencing life Its title The Song of Songs is a superlative an almost exaggerated expression of praise which insists that this book is the best of the best Designed to be read over fifty days As Good as It Gets takes the reader through this greatest of love songs delighting in its beauty and exploring its passion while discovering its insights into aspects of love and life such as praise intimacy affirmation identity insecurity community friendship transformation disruption resolution restlessness rapture confidence dignity disclosure and freedom In the end the reader will discover much more than a manual on relationships or even what it takes to live a passionate and purposeful life While remaining entirely honest about the realities of life love and relationships The Song retains the remarkable ability to bring us into a life that is filled with joy and grace beauty and poetry "Ethel's Love-Life" and Other Writings Margaret J. M. Sweat,2020-12-25 In a series of lengthy letters the unsettled and unruly Ethel Sutherland writes to an initially unnamed and ungendered correspondent and patiently discloses the troubled history of her past romantic attachments to both men and women Not until the third letter does she reveal that her correspondent is Ernest the man to whom she is engaged to be married Wanting to make him understand how all of her past loves are included and sublimated in her love for him she especially wants to explain how women often love each other with as much fervor and excitement as they do men and although this love is curiously freed from all the grosser elements of passion as it exists between sexes nevertheless it retains its energy its abandonment its flush its eagerness its palpitation and its rapture

Margaret Jane Mussey Sweat 1823 1908 a native of Portland Maine and wife of a United States congressman published Ethel's Love Life in 1859 The book is sometimes credited as an early even the first lesbian American novel but such a label Christopher Looby observes in his Introduction somewhat misrepresents what is distinctive and surprising about the book Ethel's Love Life confounds our received binary distinctions between the spiritual and the carnal and indeed between the sexual and the nonsexual the boundaries between such categories being not nearly as well policed at the time as they later became It is here reprinted along with Sweat's Verses 1890 and five of her published essays on Charlotte Brontë George Sand the contemporary novel and the friendships of women

Love in the Time of AIDS Mark Hunter, 2010-10-25 In some parts of South Africa more than one in three people are HIV positive Love in the Time of AIDS explores transformations in notions of gender and intimacy to try to understand the roots of this virulent epidemic By living in an informal settlement and collecting love letters cell phone text messages oral histories and archival materials Mark Hunter details the everyday social inequalities that have resulted in untimely deaths Hunter shows how first apartheid and then chronic unemployment have become entangled with ideas about femininity masculinity love and sex and have created an economy of exchange that perpetuates the transmission of HIV AIDS This sobering ethnography challenges conventional understandings of HIV AIDS in South Africa

Adapting Health Communication to Cultural Needs Piet Swanepoel,Hans Hoeken,2008-08-14 The question of what constitutes effective health communication has been addressed mainly by scholars working in American and European cultural contexts Many people who could benefit most from effective health communication however come from different cultures A prime example is the threat posed by HIV AIDS to the people of South Africa Although it is generally acknowledged that health communication needs to be tailored to the target audience s characteristics with cultural background being one of the most salient ones little research has been done on how to achieve this In this book we bring together leading scholars in the field of health communication as well as communication scholars from South Africa As such it can serve as an example of the promises and the limitations of general health communication theories to local praxis as well as provide guidelines for the development of better health communication in South Africa
