Mckinsey Report Insurance Claims:

The Claims Game: The Tricks and Deceptive Tactics Insurance Companies Use to Underpay or Deny Your Claim David Skipton, PCLA, LPCS, SPPA, AIC, 2015-11-10 When someone suffers a serious loss at their home or business one of the first things they often think is this At least I have insurance But the claims process is deviously designed to pay only pennies on the dollar for losses Furthermore if you take an insurance company to court you ll find that the legal system is stacked against you David Skipton brings his many years of claims adjusting experience to help you avoid the pitfalls in the claims process Learn how to recognize the tricks insurance companies play to cheat you out of money take steps to improve your chances of enjoying a favorable outcome on a claim and receive fair compensation in the event of an insurance payout It doesn t matter if you own a business or a home if you have an active claim or not it s important to demystify the claims process It begins by learning how to protect your best interests and learning how to play The Claims Game Proceedings of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

Delivery Stephen C. Schimpff, MD,2012-02-01 Approximately 100 000 deaths per year in the United States result from preventable medical errors This figure is about twice the number of people who die in car accidents and five times the number of murder victims annually and twenty times the number of servicemen and women killed in Iraq and Afghanistan since the start of hostilities in 2001 If you think Americans have the best health care system in the world think again In this deeply researched and controversial book Dr Stephen Schimpff explains why our health care delivery system serves us so poorly why it costs so much and why government policy over many decades has not only failed to improve care delivery but has actually made it worse In the process he dispels common misconceptions about medicine and health care The Future of Health Care Delivery provides timely information and a road map to achieve world class care delivery putting health care where it belongs in the hands of the patient and medical professionals instead of the insurance companies and government
